Subject: Re: Siderius Genealogy

Dear Betty,

Thank you for responding. I'm enjoying e-mailing my "long-lost relatives."
Sounds like you have kept up quite well with the family. Yes, I have formal pictures of Akke, my Dad and his four brothers, Clara and Everett, and a few others. I have a snapshot of Clara, E.W., and my parents taken somewhere in the Rio Grande Valley. I remember my parents' recollection of visiting in SD with you grandparents. They enjoyed them so much. I think Aunt Mattie Zoodsma was one of my Dad's favorite aunts. Although, he spoken lovingly of all the aunts and uncles.
Here is Barbara Fratto's e-mail address: jfratto@gte.net. She has been a bit overwhelmed this year. She's the mother of two active, darling daughters. Her Dad, Ron Chase, is caring for his wife, Nancy. Nancy has Alzheimer's disease, and he isn't ready to put her in a care facility yet. Ron, himself, is recovering from lung cancer surgery. So, much responsibility has fallen on Barbara's shoulders.
Ron's brother, Gene, is recovering from prostate surgery! Anyway, Barbara is a dear person and will enjoy hearing from you, I'm sure. She and her family sneaked
a trip to Disney World over spring break.
My immediate family consist of a daughter and a son. Jennifer is 30 yrs.
old lives in Santa Fe with her husband. John, 28yrs. old, lives in Lubbock.
Charles
and I have lived in Albuquerque for 25 yrs., so it is more or less home now.
Since my parents deaths, we don't return to my part of Texas as much. Charles' Mom, at 90 yrs., still lives in her family home in Yoakum. We do visit her, though.
I sense that we probably have the same genealogy info, since you have been in touch with Barbara Fratto. But I welcome corresponding with you for updates on where the grandchildren and greatgrandchildren are located. I think the whole story could be made into a very interesting book, with Akke as a very strong female role-model.
I would like to mention one more thing I uncovered. Through the vanderHeide

Publishing Co. in Vancouver, I found a very interesting book. Annemieke Galema wrote the book entitled, Frisians to America 1880-1914, With the Baggage of the Fatherland. It was distributed in the US by Wayne State University Press, Detroit.

It is no longer published, but I think if you look for it, used, through Amazon.com or Barnes Noble Used Books, you could obtain a copy. Akke, Fred, and John Siderius are all mentioned and quoted in the book. Letters written back to Sint

The book explains in detail just why so many immigrated from Friesland and under what circumstances. I think it is fascinating.

Enough for now, but please do keep in touch. Maxine

Dear Maxine:

Thanks for your e-mail. My husband, Ed, is much better at Internet research than I am, so I'll see if he can find Annemieke Galema's book, FRISIANS TO AMERICA 1880-1914, WITH THE BAGGAGE OF THE FATHERLAND. I will have him try Amazon.com first. Do you hve a copy of the letter Fred Siderius wrote in 1932 about early experiences, etc. If you don't have a copy, I'll send you a copy by e-mail. I don't do attachments yet, but I'll just type it into an e-mail. My 9-year old grandson is much more proficient on the computer than I am, but I'm learning a little bit at a time. At least, I'm not afraid of it anymore.

I sent an e-mail to Barbara, but it came back with this remark, "The user(s) account is temporarily over quota." I don't know what that means, but I printed a copy of the e-mail to send her by regular mail. She really has done a good job with primary research. I have a copy of the marriage record for Clara & Everett Chase. If you don't have a copy, I will send you one. Most of the Siderius siblings were married in and around Redfield or Ashton.

I have visited the Ashton Cemetery several times. My grandparents, Mattie & Seetze, are buried just across a path from Akke and her daughter, Dora (Siderius) Berto. Dirk (Richard K. Siderius is buried there, too, beside his wife and infant daughter. (All four of my grandparents and two of my great grandmothers are buried in the Ashton Cemetery.)

I had this e-mail almost typed, and I did something wrong. It was lost forever, I guess. I hope this one will go all right. By all means, let's stay in touch. Do you have your immediate on family group sheets? If so, I would really like a copy. (I just looked at my Chase records again, and I do have your husband's name, where you were married, and names of your two children, Jennifer and John. I don't have a death date or place and a burial place for your mother.

For Donald, son of Donald & Margaret, I just have a birth date & place, and his spouses name. For Susan, I just have her birth date & place.

For John's children, I have their names, the names of spouses, and birth & marriage dates & places. I just have the names of their children.

For Lyle's daughter, I have only her name.

For Melvin, only his wife's first name Kay is shown. The record shows no children.

You may have more complete data; and if you do, I would appreciate a copy of the information.

I must close for now.

Sincerely,

Betty (Zoodsma) Leach

Dear Maxine:

I'm sorry to be slow in answering your e-mail of the 2nd, but we were away for a few days. We were in Las Vegas visiting friends who moved to Summerlin, NV, about 3 years ago. They have a lovely home, and the Del Web adult community has a great many amenities. It is just too hot for us. We got home on Thursday afternoon, but I spend most of yesterday resting & napping. Now, it is time to get busy again.

I have just gotten back to the Siderius genealogy again. In 1990, I talked to as many of the children and grandchildren of the original immigrants as I could find. Many things intervened, and I didn't get back to my Siderius files until January. I received a call from Warren Berto and his cousin, Paul Anderson (a cousin on Warren's mother line), Hariette (Rocky) King, and through her, Joop Woudstra. I decided to go ahead and get as much additional information as I could. I have exchanged letters with Barbara Fratto, and we shared information. Does she have an e-mail address? If so, I would like to contact her again. I'm really glad to find younger people interested in family history.

Yes, I am the granddaughter of Maartje (Mattie) Siderius. I was born in South Dakota, and I lived there until I was 11 years old. In 1936, my parents moved to Brentwood, CA, near Stockton, CA, where one of my mother's brothers lived. In 1986, my husband, Ed, & I moved to Friday Harbor, WA. We lived there for eleven years before moving back to California. We live in Santa Rosa just on the edge of Jack London's, "Valley of the Moon".

Your trip to Holland sounds wonderful. We have traveled over most of the U.S., but I have never been abroad.
I don't know how much more information is still to be found in Holland. Joop Woudstra gave me an e-mail address, and he said the letters could be written in English. I haven't done anything with it yet. I tried to translate some Dutch vital records by using a Dutch dictionary, but it was an impossible task for me. The sentences are constructed so differently. I have a friend whose husband is a Dutch immigrant, but I don't see them often. However, Guy will give me some help if I really need it.

I have a Sprint PCS phone with 500 minutes a month, so I have been using a lot of my minutes for genealogy research. Before we went to Las Vegas, I talked to Donald Oakes and his wife. Ileana, and Marie Oakes Ogilvie, his sister, who lives in Gilmer, TX. I tried to call Dallas Baker and Robert R. Siderius, a grandson of Fred Siderius, but they weren't home. I'll try to call Dallas tomorrow, but I am reluctant to call Robert Siderius on a Sunday. I'll try him on Monday and/or Tuesday.

It really is fun to talk to people who share your ancestry. I just start by saying our father's were cousins. I am glad that Rocky gave you my e-mail address. I knew that Clare Chase had a daughter, Maxine, b. 20 Feb 1941, but I didn't have your married name or your place of residence.

I am always glad to share information. I would really like to see a comprehensive piece done on Klaas & Akke Siderius and some or almost all of their descendants. Barbara provided me with a number of obituaries, some vital records, Chase information, & van der Feen data that she obtained from Phyllis van der Feen. The Vanderfeens in America spelled their name as one word.

Do you have pictures of Clara & Everett Chase? I have some snapshots, but I don't have a copy of a formal picture. I have a picture of my grandparents, Gertrude, Claus & Nellie (sent by Rocky), John (sent by Rocky), Cornelia (Kate) & her husband, Bill Anderson, and I believe I have a picture of Fred and his wife, Alice Huber. but I need to verify it with one of Fred's grandchildren. I'll ask Dallas if she has a picture of her parents.

When one of my sons-in-law come for a visit, I'm going to ask him to hook up my scanner. I believe that once a picture is scanned into the computer, it can be copied at will.

Let me know how we can help each other. I'm really glad to be in touch with you.

I just reread this letter, and I do go on & on. I have been involved in genealogy research since 1986; and for me it's truly become an obsession. I really enjoy the research and the contact with interesting and interested people.

Subject: Siderius/vdVeen Families

Hi Betty!

My name is Maxine Chase Hickox and I live in Albuquerque. Rocky King and I have been corresponding since last weekend. She passed on, to me, your e-mail address. For about the last two years I have been very interested in my family's genealogy. Just recently, I've acquired a little more information. Last May, my husband and I traveled to Friesland and Sint Annaparochie. I had no family contacts; we just soaked up the area and enjoyed every minute of it. It's a lovely place now--a "bedroom community" of Leeuwarden.

Rocky told me that you are the granddaughter of Mattie and Seetze Zoodsma. I am the grand daughter of Clara Siderius and Everett Willard Chase. My grandmother was the 8th of the original 13 children of Akke and Klaas Siderius, and yours was the 1st. I have your name in the genealogy information I've acquired. Until now, I had no idea where you were. By deduction, are you in California? I have the info that your father, Claus, passed away in Castro Valley, 10 December, 1966. Is that correct?

My second cousin, Barbara Chase Fratto, has supplied me with the info that I have. She is the greatgranddaughter of Clara. Her grandfather was John Siderius Chase, Clara's 3rd son. She acquired her information from Dallas Baker via Lois Ann Oakes. Does that make sense to you?

Anyway, I would enjoy corresponding with you. And of course, I will share my genealogy info with you, should you want it. I would be curious to know what you have. Rocky seemed to think you had quite a bit.

It is so exciting to me to know that I have relatives out there and where they are. I grew up in Texas, as an only child. Once I married and left the area I lost track of what the family was doing.
My Dad was Clare Burton (Dutch) Chase, Clara's 5th (and last) son.

Hoping to hear from you, Maxine

Subject: Received Package & Pictures

Dear Maxine:

I sent an e-mail to you last night, but it was returned "user unknown". I was very surprised since I sent one to you Sunday evening. Well, I'll just try again.

Thank you for copies of the pictures. Most of them turned out very well. I appreciate your Siderius/van der Feen data. You have made several additions that I know I don't have.

I have two pictures of Akke, but they are different than the one you sent to me. Do you know where Cronyn & Hibbs, Railway Photographers, was located. Barbara sent me some pictures for identification several years ago, but most of my genealogy materials were in storage for 3 years while our home in Friday Harbor, WA, was on the market. (The market turned very slow just as we put our home on the market.) I had forgotten about the 3-year lapse of time until I saw the moisture damage on some of the papers that had been in storage. I'm very sorry that I overlooked getting this job done, but I'm trying to identify the people in the photos.

I'm sending copies along to you, because I think the pictures taken in Stoughton & possibly Madison were probably from the Chase family. I'm not really very good at spotting resemblances, but the women in Nos. 2, 3 & 4 seem to resemble each other. Picture No. 4 was taken by Railway Photographers who also took your picture of Akke. I believe the pictures taken in Westby & LaCrosse were probably members of the Critchett family, so I'll send copies along to Dallas, too.

I will send you some pictures by Thursday. I went to Office Max today, and I had the copies made. I will, also, enclose pictures of my parents and grandparents.

I hope this e-mail goes through all right. I'm really glad you contacted me.

Sincerely,

Betty

I will also inclose pictures of my grandparents and my parents. I have a 1983 picture of my mother, my brother, my daughters, and me. I will have that copied, and I will send it along, too. However, a lot of years have passed by since that picture was taken.

I'm really glad that you contacted me.

Subject: Re: Siderius Genealogy, Pictures, etc.

Dear Maxine:

Thanks for your e-mail. I am looking forward to your information which will probably arrive tomorrow.

Concerning pictures: I don't have a picture of Klaas Siderius, Akke's husband. If & when I get in touch with Fred Siderius's grandson, I'll ask what pictures they have. I believe I have pictures of Fred, his wife, Alice, and his son, Robert Huber Siderius; but I do need to have the identification confirmed. I do have two pictures of Akke. One was taken in Redfield, SD; and it was finished in sepia tone. The other picture was taken in Tacoma, and it is basically in blacks and grays. Apparently, Akke Siderius went to the northwest to visit her children who lived there.

I have group pictures. One is a large group picture, and it includes your mother and father. John Siderius is in the picture, so it was taken before December 1940. Dale Ellsworth identified the people in the picture for me. There are two small boys sitting on the ground in front of the group + a dog. I had the picture enlarged on Office Max's color copier, so it is much easier to identify the people. If you don't have this picture, I'll be glad to send you an enlarged copy. I also have picture that includes Clara, Ada, Peach, & Gertie. I have pictures of Peach Jones, Tom & Marie. I also have a photograph of the 4 sons of Dora Berto. I'll be glad to send you copies of what you want.

The original thirteen children: I have pictures of my grandmother, Maartje (Mattie); Kate (Siderius) Anderson; Gertie Siderius; and copies of photographs for Claus Siderius & John Siderius; and probably pictures of Fred. I only have snapshots of Clara, Ada, Peach, Richard K. Siderius. I don't have a picture of Dora. I will e-mail one of Dora's grandsons. He may possibly have a formal picture of her. I don't have any picture at all of Maggie (Siderius) Oakes. I will check with her granddaughter again to see if she has a picture of her grandmother. She might be willing to make a copy for us.

It was good to hear from you.

Sincerely,

Betty

Hi Betty!
Just want you to know that I mailed copies of my family genealogy to you last Thursday. I included both the Siderius family and the vanderVeen family information. Please let me know if this helps fill in with what you have. I will peruse things after school is out in a couple of weeks and see what I might ask from you. Do you have any pictures of Klaas Siderius, Akke's husband? Do you have any pictures of the original 13 children? I'd like a group picture of any of your family.
If this is too much to ask, I understand. Please keep in touch.

Sincerely,

Dear Betty,

How about if I just send you all the info I have. I'll fill in some that is not typed already. I substitute teach for the deaf and hearing impaired programs and am working Monday. So...the first day off, I'll get that in the mail for you.

Please send me your address.

Charles and I lived in San Jose, CA during 1965 and 1966. I regret that I did not know your whereabouts. And...last Labor Day we were in Palo Alto for a friend's daughter's wedding; later visited friends in Livermore; then spend 5 days in the Mendocino area. If only I had known about you!!! So sorry because we drove through Santa Rosa! Occasionally, Charles has a meeting in San Francisco. So if one occurs, I'll let you know. He is a research engineer at Sandia Nat'l Laboratories, Albuquerque, so once in awhile we get out to the Bay Area.

Sincerely, Maxine

Dear Maxine:

I'm glad you liked the genealogy papers; however, there is still quite a bit to be done. Rocky sent me some corrections, and I received some from Barbara Fratto this morning.

I would love to be visiting with you & Barbara tonight. I talked to her briefly a month or so ago when I called her mother. I still have some blanks to fill in for Barbara. Have either of her sons married? All I have for her second marriage is her husband's name. I probably should call her when she get home. I could probably get her telephone No. for you.

Do you know the occupations or professions of the families who moved to Texas, ie. Everett Chase, Curtis Critchett, William C. Jones, & John Siderius. Rocky sent me some news clippings, and one said that Dlaus operated a filling station and garage in San Benito until November 1945. A clipping stated that "C. C. Siderius this morning was appointed justice of the peace for San Benito succeeding the late R. T. (Riggs) Roberts who died early this week." Claus was actually appointed Justice of Peace & city corporation judge. Probably from the VMS or VMN.

Have a great visit.

Betty

Dear Betty.

Your packet of genealogy papers arrived yesterday. Wow! What a wonderful job you have done collecting all the facts! I am impressed, and very grateful.

Barbara Dale arrives this evening at 6:30. Charles and I will meet her at the airport, have dinner, and then come back to our home for the evening. I have laid out all of my genealogy info on the dining room table, so we can spend time looking through it. She is bringing some pictures for me to copy while she is here. I'll ask her if she can ID the people you have in question, and let you know the results.

So glad Joop has confirmed the relationship between the Kalispell Siderius family and ours. JoLynn Siderius Yenne and her family are great people. JoLynn will report on her trip to Simmer 2000 about mid-July.
Don't you wish we could all attend the Festival? Her family even has "Siderius Family" sweat shirts to wear!
I need to copy the background info on the Siderius family name, which JoLynn gave me, and mail it on to you.

Enjoy your weekend, and I'll send a message after Barbara's visit. Love, Maxine

Dear Maxine:

I mailed the paper for Klaas Jans Siderius et al today. I had a lot more "stuff" than I realized; but I need find more information about Fred Siderius, if I can. I guess I'll try to get his death certificate from the State of Oregon. I need to make a few more telephone calls to update information, too.

As I worked with this program, I realized that it could do more than I thought it could. The paper I sent to you isn't from a sophisticated genealogical program, but I hope it serves a purpose. I have a scanner, but it isn't hooked up. I'm waiting for one of my sons-in-law to visit. When that is up an working, I can include pictures..

What a nice surprise to have Barbara, her daughters, & her parents for a visit. You are having your own mini reunion this summer. I have never met Dallas or her daughter, Barbara; but maybe Barbara will be able to help identify some of those pictures.

Joop's letter to Rocky's son unleashed a lot of Siderius activity.

Dear Betty,

Your package arrived today. Thank you so very much for all of that information. I had never seen the marriage license of Clara and EW. My Dad was not a publisher. Rather, he was always managing businesses. First a lumber co.; then a Mom and Pop store right before they retired in Goliad.

Barbara Dale is coming through Albuquerque Sat. evening. She is meeting a friend on Sunday. Anyway, she will stay with us until her friend arrives. I thought I would show her your pictures, and see if there any unknowns that she can ID. I have never met her, so it should be fun.

Today, I also heard from Barbara Fratto in the Dallas area. She, her two young daughters, Ron and Nancy Chase will be passing through Albuquerque the end of July. They want to get together. Yeah! Ron and Nancy visited here about 2 1/2 yrs. ago, and I have not seen Barbara since my wedding 37 yrs. ago! It will be great to visit.

Rocky has thrown out the idea of a Siderius reunion. What do you think?

I will certainly help. I just wonder how many would actually come. Think about it!

Again, I really appreciate your input into the genealogy project.

Dear Maxine:

I just received your e-mail. Thanks! I just finished entering the last of the Siderius data that I had in my files that seemed to be relevant. I printed the lst copy, and I'm making some changes. It will be about 40 pages including index. It's just a first draft.

I will send your copy tomorrow. Please let me know about any errors, omissions, additions, etc. Two or three families gave me occupational, professional & educational information. I guess it's a good idea. I decided to add it into my family, also.

I hope you get your copy before Barbara arrives. I will send her mother a copy as well as Dale, Rocky, and Barbara Fratto.

I think a Siderius reunion of some kind would be great. It would take some planning and some advance notice. It is certainly worth exploring.

Subject: Siderius/Chase Genealogy

Dear Maxine:

I'm so glad you liked the pictures. The large group picture was only a normal 3x5, but I thought it enlarged beautifully.

To answer your questions: Rocky sent me information and pictures for the Claus Siderius family. I sent copies of the pictures to Dallas, too; but I haven't heard from her yet. I won't call her until after you visit with Barbara Dale on June 10th.

Questions: I wonder where the Railway Photographers was located. Was there any indication of place on the back of the picture? Sometimes, rarely, I guess, I've found location on the back. Do you know who Willis Chase was? He was in Spink Co., SD, at the time of the 1880 census. He married a cousin of my mothers, Emma Maude Pratt.

John H. Chase, brother, b. Sep 1857, age 42, single, b. Wisc., father b. VT, mother, b. NH, was living with Everett Chase & his family at the time of the 1900 census in Jefferson Township, Spink Co., SD. In 1900, Everett & Clara had been married for 9 years, and she had 3 children. I like census records because they give a lot of information.

In 1910, your Dad was only 3 years old. Ezra Brubaker, age 47 or 48, was living in the household. His relationship to head of household was unclear. Do you know anything about him?

I taught business and history in high school for 25 years, so I know what it's like at the end of the school year. You will soon have some time to relax.

I entered a composite of the information you sent me and the material Barbara sent me several years ago into my program. I'll send you copies tomorrow. Please let me know about any mistakes or omissions, etc. I'm sending copies of the family group sheets, too, because they really make it easy to see what still needs to be added. I have the Berto family to enter yet, and then I will be through until I get corrections or additions. When I finish, I will print out a rough draft and send a copy to you. I know there will be many changes, etc.; but it's a start. It will be done in the Modified Register Style which I can do on my program. I should be 30 to 40 pages. I have been putting off the Bertoes until last because there is so much data. Fred. one of Dora's four sons, had 9 children.

Some families have added educational and occupational and/or professional information for themselves & their children. I can always put that information in the notes section.

More later & happy vacation,

Love,

Betty..

I get started writing, and I can't seem to stop. bjl

I forgot to respond to Tom and Marie Jones. If I ever met them, it was when I was very young. My parents really enjoyed Tom and Marie. They apparently did things together in early-marriage times. Tom and Marie lived in McAllen, TX for many years. I know that Tom has died, and am unsure about Marie. Dallas would probably know a lot more. They did not have any children that I'm aware of.

I am wondering about John Siderius. Did his wife (Kate Daniels) have children when they married? Somehow, I think that they never had children together. Is that correct?

Dear Maxine:

Your visit with Barbara & her dad sounded great. Barbara has done a lot of work on the family. I need to send her an e-mail and ask about Kate Siderius & Marie Jones. I know she collected some vital records, and she may have something on them.

Did I tell you that Dallas thought that William C. Jones had gone back to Mellette, Spink Co., SD, where his parents were. I did find some Joneses in Mellette in 1920, but William must have been in Texas at that time. He didn't appear on the Mellette census. I really want to stop at the Mellette Cemetery when we go to ND next spring. I think I can convince Ed & my sister-in-law to take a 100 mile ride to Ashton & Mellette. They took me to Ipswich, SD, last fall. I was looking for a cousin of my maternal grandmother. I have put that research aside, and I have been concentrating almost exclusively on the Sideriuses.

I will be away Monday through Thursday on a short camping/fishing trip at a Sierra-Nevada Mountain lake. I really hope I have better luck with my fishing this trip.

Fred Siderius' death record arrived while we were gone. He died 24 May 1939, Portland, Multnomah Co., Oregon. I sent for the record of Dora's death, but I haven't received anything back from the state of Washington yet.

Have Barbara & her parents been to your home yet? How I would love to be able to actually visit with you folks. E-mail is fine, but first-hand conversations are better. Dear Betty,

Ron Chase and Barbara Fratto spent all day Saturday with us, and it was so great to sit down and talk about the family. Barbara brought all of her genealogy materials, and allowed me to copy what I want. She has a lot of stuff! I wanted to let you know that she has identified two of the pictures that you sent. No. 2 is Flora Chase Chipman, and No. 8 is her husband, Herbert A Chipman, MD. I feel that No. 9 is a picture of one of EW Chase's brothers and his family--will work on that. By the way, Flora was EW's sister.

Ron looks so good. He has lost a bit of weight--one of his medications causes appetite-suppression. He resembles my Dad SO MUCH that it was uncanny! We just enjoyed the day so much. He told me more about John Siderius and where his farm was in Los Fresnos. Apparently, Dick Siderius only lived the last 8 years of his life in Los Fresnos, where he died. But early on, he bought a piece of farm land next to EW and Clara Chase's farm. Barbara had pictures of Clara's house when they first built it. Also, had pictures of my Dad and John Chase farming the land. It is all so nostalgic. She has a couple of pictures of you and your brother. No doubt, you have those too.

Ron left his wife, Nancy, in a nursing home for the 2 weeks that he and his kids and grandkids vacationed in Colorado. He was anxious to get home to see her.

Hope all is well with you, and that you have caught-up from having been gone.

Love, Maxine

Subject: Thanks!

Dear Maxine:

Thanks for the pictures and the genealogy. We have studied the pictures, and I glanced at the genealogy. Ed is much better at picking out details in pictures than I am. He feels that Akke's father in your right hand picture is probably the same person as No. 2 in the top right-hand picture that I sent. He felt like you & Barbara that the lady with the clips and head covering was probably Akke's mother. I feel it's just amazing how much we have learned already. Just imagine how much we would have if every family contributed pictures & memorabilia.

Barbara Fratto asked her Dad about the occupations of Curtis Critchett, (farmer); Everett Chase, (farmer); John Siderius, (farmer); Claus Siderius, (had a filling station) & a newspaper clipping provided by Rocky stated that he had a filling station and a garage; & William C. Jones, (was in the produce business.)

Saturday, Ed & I plan to go camping & fishing with a son and his family. We plan to be home on the 28th, and on the 30th, we are supposed to go to Newport Beach (S. California) to take care of a daughter's two cats while they take a two week vacation in Europe. I'll be away from my computer for over 3 weeks.

If you have any census questions, let know. Their apartment is only about 15 minutes from a National Archives Branch. I hope to spend 3 to 5 days doing research there. We are over 100 miles from the San Bruno Archives Branch, and we have to go through some of the worst traffic in California. We just don't do it. I just order 4 microfilm at a time from our local library. The film comes from the State Library system & is a really great service.

I was glad to get the picture of Uncle Dick. When we lived in South Dakota, Uncle Dick and Aunt Gusty (Gusti) lived, I think, on a farm on the James "Jim" River a few miles from our farm. The River ran really close to Ashton because we crossed it every time we went to town, usually once a week on Saturday. I can remember going to their place for Thanksgiving dinner once while we were still in South Dakota. I have a very hazy mental picture of their place.

Thank you again for the information. I plan to spend some time with the Siderius history later this evening.

Love,

Dear Maxine:

Your visit with Barbara sounded like fun, and it was apparently very productive in working on some family problems.

I will try to make most of the corrections this evening, and I will send you & Barbara (to her mother's address) the corrected copy. We'll just make the changes until things are correct. Now I know why I never heard a word about William C. Jones. How should I put it? Should I say "William & Peach Jones separated. He went North, and she stayed in Texas. Peach operated a boarding house for single women who were mostly teachers." The word "abandoned" sounds so awful. What do you think? I need help with that one.

Yesterday, I was working with the paper; and I noticed that we didn't have much on Donald Everett Chases' family. I went on Netscape & found a Donald E. Chase, 1094 Bradley Street, St. Paul, MN 55101, No. 651-772-9274. I called the No., but it was disconnected with no other information. I, then, took my cell phone & Sprint PCS found a listing for Donald E. Chase, Jr., at 612-379-1228. I was curious, so I called the No. I just got voice mail. Do you think that is the son of Donald Chase & Margaret Christenson.

I so glad to get possible ID's on some of those pictures. I have three pictures of men, probably van der Feens. They are all different men. I'll make copies Wednesday morning, and I'll send copies to you & Barbara. You can compare with the ones you have. I hope the little picture is of Akke's mother. I'll try to have that one enlarged.

We will be out of town tomorrow. We have an eye appt. in Oakland and a dermatologist appt. in Hayward. I won't get any genealogy done tomorrow. Last night, I talked to Ron & Roy Lee Berto, sons of Robert Berto, Dora's youngest son. I got much more complete information about their family. I still don't have anything on Robert's first marriage. I will try for more information about Lawrence Berto's family. Dorothy, Lawrence's widow, was quite old when I visited with her by telephone 10 years ago. She didn't appear to be well then, so I'm sure she is no longer with us. I'm going to try talking to some of her grandchildren.

Thanks for the information. I'll will send the pictures and the corrections Wednesday.

Love,

Betty

Dear Betty,

I failed to mention that I will send a copy of the Siderius name's history soon. I will also copy the photos from Leeuwarden of Akke, her parents, and a brother. Plus, another photo of one of her brothers, probably Peter.

The way you wrote of Peach's separation sounds fine. There isn't ever a "good way" to express what happened. Barbara seemed to think that her husband was an alcoholic, but will double-check with Dallas. She owned a beautiful 2-story home in San Benito filled with many lovely furnishings. When her sons sold the home, they also sold most of her nice furnishings. This according to Barbara.

Hope your doctors' appointments go well. I try to arrange all my annual doctors' appointments in June after school is out. Have already accomplished most of those.

Will write again soon.

Hello Betty,

Glad to hear from you. Charles and I are ready for Barbara's visit. I'm unsure how long she will have here. I know that her friend, Teri, will arrive tomorrow. I will ak her the questions you have, and will let you know.

I know that E.W. Chase owned a general store in SD, and that he was president of the First State Bank (found this on the internet!) He also farmed in Ashton, where he fell from a tractor and injured his leg. The leg would not heal, and he had it amputated. Soon after that, he and Clara moved to the Rio Grande Valley of Texas to farm. They mostly grew potatoes and cotton.

Will write again soon. Thanks again to all of you for connecting me to my family! It is so exciting.

Love, Maxine

Dear Betty,

Barbara and I had a nice visit, and discussed many things pertaining to the family. I wish both you and Rocky could have joined us. To answer some of your questions:

Entered corrections

Barbara's Phone No. is 956-630-2041 in McAllen, TX.

Here are Barbara's corrections and updates:
Barbara's birthdate is October 4,1943. She is divorced twice. The last man left her 7 yrs. ago!
Her sons are both married, but have no children.
157 Garry Mark Walters married Gwyneth Marie Vaughn on March 25, 2000 at Enchanted Rock State Park, near Fredericksburg, TX.
158 Darren Clark Walters married Jolene Kay Harkins on December 3, 1994 in Bayview, TX.
70 Harlan married Ann D'Hemmecort on July 31, 1993 in Bayview, TX. Harlan's first wife's birthdate is 19 August 1942 in St. Cloud, MN.
159 Matthew C. Baker married Tara Kelley. They have two sons:
Logan Conrad born June 11, 1996 in Maryland.
Maeve Belle born April, 1998 in Maryland.
162 Margery Lynn Baker married Dean Johnson on March 9, 1996 in Phoenix, AZ. They have two daughters:
Elizabeth Sara was born May 14, 1998 in Idaho.
Natalie Sonia was born June 1, 1000 in Idaho.

There are a few people she/we IDed. In the large group picture, the young boy on the left (blonde hair) is Harlan Baker. The other boy is still a mystery. Barbara will ask Dallas if she knows who it is.
Of the pictures you thought might be Critchett family, Barbara did not recognize any of them. The woman with the white lace/cloth headcovering we think is Maaike Peters Hoekstra. When Ron Chase and Barbara come in July, I will ask if they know the possible Chase pictures.

Barbara and I believe that No. 11 is of Fred Siderius. This is just an observation on my part, but the woman 2nd from the left in No. 13 looks similar to the woman (Flora Chase Chipman) in

No. 15.

Barbara brought 2 pictures you may not have. Do you have a photo is "Brother of Akke vanderFeen Siderius," made in Rochester, NY. We decided that it is of Peter. She also brought a photo of Maaike Peters Hoekstra and her husband, Feddes vanderFeen along with Akke and probably Cornelius. That picture is from Leeuwarden, Nieuwestad 59. Do you have either of these photos? I'll copy them if you want.

Also, when JoLynn S. Yenne was here in March, she brought a copy of the Siderius history from Friesland. It has been translated into broken English, but JoLynn felt fortunate to have a friend in Lieden, Holland who did the best she could to translate. In Leeuwarden, is an existing building with the Siderius crest on it. Presently, it is a pharmacy, but in times long ago, it was the iron shop of the Siderius family who made armor. From the history, it seems that the family split in two: one remained iron workers, and the other branch became farmers. Guess which one we descended from? Siderius means "Ironman." The former name was Iserman. Also, there seems to be a huge number of schoolteacher along with the farmers!

Curtis Critchett farmed in Los Fresnos. Mr. Jones abandoned his family, and went north. Barbara will ask Dallas if she knows more. Peach operated a boardinghouse in San Benito for single women, usually schoolteachers. Barbara will ask Dallas about John Siderius' occupation.

Well, read this over and see if it makes sense to you. Please ask questions if I have been vague. Talk to you soon.

Love, Maxine

Dear Betty,

It is so good to hear from you. Glad to know about Fred's information. He and his brother, John, are to be admired for what they did for their family--getting them to SD wasn't simple or easy. I have compiled all the info that you, Rocky, Barbara Dale, Jolynn, and Barbara Fratto have sent me. I now have a notebook with plastic pockets about 2 " thick.

Ron Chase and family will be here over the weekend--either the 30th or 31st. Their pending visit inspired me to get my info organized so we can compare notes, pictures, etc. I just love the photos from Holland. Wish there were photos of Klaus Siderius. Does anyone have one? Ron Chase looks and has mannerisms similar to my Dad. It is so interesting to visit him just for that reason alone.

The Montana Sideriuses have been in touch. Jolynn Siderius Yenne returned from Simmer 2000 in Friesland about 2 weeks ago. Nine members of her family went to Friesland--stayed in 2 bungalows in Frankner. Her 87 yr. old mother, Dolly Siderius, was with them! Said they spent a couple of hours with Joop Woudstra in Engelem (about 10 miles from Sint Annaparochie.) He showed Jolynn all of his genealogy collection on the Sideriuses. Through his records, he connected Jolynn's Sideriuses with ours. He has records from the 1700's! Anyway, Jolynn, Jerry, and Dolly will be in Albuquerque in mid-Oct. Hope they will stay with us. She wants to show and tell about their visit to Holland. I'm anxious to see and hear everything. On a cute note, Jolynn and family wore their Siderius t-shirts and sweatshirts while in Friesland. They had the shirts already because they have a huge family reunion every other year at a resort in MT, where they wear them. Approximately 150 Siderius descendents and their spouses gather each time!

Rocky said that Jolynn's sister, Linda who lives in Denver, will join Rocky's family this weekend to update them on the Friesland visit. I'm sure that Rocky will let us know all about it. You and Rocky sound like such interesting, sweet people. I would love to meet you both in person. I know we will eventually get back to visit friends at Sea Ranch, so will definitely want to meet and visit you, too.

Someday,
I will surprise you!

I will update you on the Ron Chase family visit next week. I wish you could join us. If it is possible, we have an extra bedroom--you and your husband are always welcome here.

Love, Maxine

Jolynn and Jerry have invited Charles and me to visit them in Bigfork, MT.
Charles'
Mom is 90 yrs. old, had a mild stroke, and has made the decision to move here into an independent living home-- about 5 mins. from our home. As soon as an apt.
becomes available, we will go to Texas, pack her up and move her. So, our plans are indefinite at the moment. We will eventually go to MT for that visit. I, too, want to visit Ashton. We may be able to incorporate Ashton into our MT trip--we'll see.

It's a lot of driving, so we may need to do the fly/rental car thing. Right now we are concentrating on getting my mother-in-law situated here.

Dear Maxine:
We have some things to do today, but as soon as we can, I will have Ed look on Netscape for a Whitney Miller. I will have him check other names as well. Ashton, SD, keeps turning up in this family. Birdie's sister "Mrs. Harvey Hann or Hanna of Ashton, SD." I will see what he can find on Joan Millers in Edina. She may have remarried, so probably Whitney would be the best bet if he has a listed number. My Netscape program got wiped off my hard drive when a son-in-law connected my scanner. Now, I'm waiting for my other son-in-law to fix it for me.

Do you suppose Birdie & Dick Chase met in Ashton, SD. Do you have a copy of Melvin Chase's obituary? When you have time, I would like to have a xeroxed copy of the Chase obituaries that you have.

My cousin took us around Fort Snelling last October when we were in Minneapolis, but I didn't notice a cemetery. I certainly will next time I go there. There is a rather large visitor's center at Fort Snelling, so I will try calling there to see if there is any printed information about the cemetery. I know I have seen Upton Street, and I believe it is near the downtown lakes.

If we find a # for Whitney, I will let you know. More later. Love, Betty I'm glad you heard from Donald. He sounds nice but busy. I'm mailing four family group sheets tomorrow, and I will highlight the information I would like to have. I wonder if his parents and Lyle & Birdie Chase are buried in Lakewood Cemetery. I have a cousin on my maternal side who lives about a mile from that cemetery. I'll get the address & telephone # from her and give the cemetery a call. Ed's maternal grandfather is buried in that cemetery, so we visited the there a few years ago when we were in Minneapolis.

It would be nice to have a record of the descendants of Donald & Margaret (Christenson) Chase & Lyle R. & Birdie (Newton) Chase. Love, Betty

Dear Betty,

I hope all is well with you, and that you caught your limit of fish. We have moved my mother-in-law here and she is very happy. The move from Texas was difficult, tiring, and HOT! Anyway, we are back doing what we usually do.

Last Tuesday, JoLynn Siderius Yenne and her husband, Jerry, came through Alb. We visited that evening and enjoyed looking at her photo album and new information from Friesland's Simmer 2000. Thirteen of her family members went. They met Dutch family members in Stien, Franeker, Berlinkum, Ouderbiltdijk, and Engelum. In Engelum, Joop Woudstra and his wife, showed them his newly restored 17th century Dutch colonial home. They also looked at his research on the Siderius family lineage. JoLynn made a copy of his rough draft. She brought a copy for me. Today, I made copies for you, Barbara Dale, and Barbara Fratto. Note: At Generation X is where JoLynn, Joop, and us are all related. JoLynn continued after Gen. X with her lineage. Soon, I hope to do ours.

Another interesting fact: JoLynn's Mother, Dolly Siderius, is originally from Jefferson Township in SD. JoLynn was looking at my album collection and saw the history part about Ashton and Jefferson Township! We were amazed!

I hope to get things in the mail tomorrow. I have subbed everyday so far. I need a break.

Dear Maxine:
I'm sorry about the chasm in the Chase family, but maybe it can be healed somewhat by the present generation in the interest of genealogy and harmony among really close relatives. In my Ed's family, his mother & her sister ended with irreconcilable differences. Ed's mother died in her early thirties, but the children never knew what happened to their maternal grandmother. The sister's children never knew they had five first cousins. These family stories of anger and hostility are so very sad.

Anyway, when I saw the lack of information concerning the Minneapolis Chases, I decided to try to find Donald, Jr. I exhanged some e-mails with him, but I haven't heard anything from him since July 17. So my hopes of providing some information there have been dashed, but it is possible that as a much closer relative you might be able to get some information from him. He really doesn't need to go into storage to provide information about his family or his sisters family. Anyway, here is his e-mail address and the text of three e-mails that we exchanged. I did talk to him by phone in June, but he didn't have time to talk.

E-Mail address: Dechasejr@aol.com
E-Mail dated, Monday, July 17, 2000. Betty - I haven't forgotten about your request for information. Most of my family stuff is in storage. I hope to be able to locate that information soon. It will be emailed to you when I get it. Donald E. Chase, Jr.
E-Mail dated Saturday, June 17, 2000. Betty - Good news. One of my cousins has done an extensive Chase family genealogy. They have it starting about 1638, I think. So I will email them with your note./I have a pretty busy schedule before June 24. So I suppose we could prearrange a time in the evening some night. (I tried to get a phone conversation about genealogy with him, but it didn't work out.) How much information are you collecting on each individual?/bye Don Chase (I realize now that I should have sent you a copy of this e-mail right away. Sorry.) Do you suppose the cousin he mentioned was Barbara Fratto? Maybe, one of the Minneapolis Chases did research. Anyway, I suppose that remark needs to be checked out.

First E-Mail from Donald Chase dated Friday, June 16, 2000. Betty - I got you phone message the other day (I left a message on his answer phone, but I didn't know for sure he was a descendant of Clara & Everett.) Sorry I haven't responded sooner but I have not been home./Yes, my grandfather was Everett and grandmother was Clara. I never met either one of them./So let me know what or how I can help./Thanks/Don Chase

My e-mails to him contained information about the siblings of Clara, and I gave him some information about my family in an effort to prove that I wasn't just prying.

Maxine, I'm not really asking you to contact Donald unless you want to do so. If you want me to keep trying instead, just let me know. Love, Betty.

Dear Betty,

As for Peach Jones, I know that Tom Jones passed away. His wife, Marie, was in the same nursing home as Gladys Chase (John's widow.) Aunt Gladys passed away in May of 1994. Barbara Fratto remembers seeing Marie, but Marie didn't know the family. I feel that perhaps she has also passed away. Tom had a younger brother who lived in Florida. I don't think Ron has attempted to contact him.

Thanks for asking about the Minneapolis Chases. Barbara Fratto and her Dad, Ron Chase, have made attempts to speak to Donald and Dick's children. Joann Chase is divorced and Ron never made contact with her. He always dialed a number that wasn't hers. Ron did speak to Donald Chase's son, also named Donald. Donald always knew that there was a chasm between his father and Uncle Dick and Birdie. Ron finally told him the story. Although it was an unfortunate tale, I guess Donald was glad to know why there was no closeness between the families. Donald's daughter, Susan, is married and lives in Portland, OR. We don't know her married name, unfortunately.

Barbara F. has encouraged her Dad to write down his memories of growing up and living in the Los Fresnos area. Ron agreed to this and has begun work. This is wonderful. We should all do this for our kids. Ron was able to tell me where John and Dick Siderius' farms were. I never knew before. Because Ron's parents divorced when he was young, he said that he did not visit John or Dick's farms much, but at least he knows their location. Dick's adjoined Clara's farm, and John's was about one mile away off the main road.

Yes, subbing keeps me busy and out of the malls! Actually, I've been doing this for 14 yrs. and just for the deaf and hard of hearing programs here in Albuquerque. I know everyone, and always have an assistant. It nice, and not like going to a new, strange school most days. I'm the only sub for about 18 teachers--that is also nice.

I will certainly keep in touch, and you please do the same.

Dear Betty,

I received your packet today, and once again, many thanks. I haven't heard from Barbara since her return. She said she would ask Dallas the questions we discussed. Also, Lois Ann Oakes will visit Dallas over the 4th of July weekend in San Benito. Perhaps, Barbara can pick up some more facts then. By the way, Barbara has in her possession the pin worn by Akke in the photo made in Tacoma. It is made of her hair, which was a popular item of the day back then. I hope she will photograph it and send out copies--said she would.

I think it is for sure a photo of Maaike Pieters Hoekstra. No. 2 is Feddes, her husband. I don't know about No. 1. We thought that No. 3 was either of Cornelius or Peter vanderVeen, probably Cornelius. They all seem to have the light-blue eyes, which my Uncle Melvin Chase had.

Barbara Fratto and her Mom and Dad will be coming through Alb. the end of July. We will go over what I have and what they have. Will let you know what we discover, if any thing!

Have a safe trip to S. California. We have an LDS library here that I plan to visit soon. I would like to have the steamship records for the family's trip over in 1885. I found some steamship records on the internet, but not for 1885!

Please keep in touch, and again, thank you for all your wonderful information.

Hi Betty,

I hope you caught a very big fish! I'm sorry that I don't know more about Marie Jones. I have been through Center, Texas before--a very long time ago. Ron told me that Marie was in the same nursing home in Harlingen, TX as Aunt Gladys (John Chase's wife.) Aunt Gladys passed away in May, 1994. Ron did not know what became of Marie after that. I think Barbara Dale told me that she had passed away, but am unsure.

I've managed to copy all the things that Barbara Fratto left for me. Now, I am trying to organize it all into my notebook. She has many things of interest. Ron was able to tell me where the farms belonging to Clara's siblings were located around Los Fresnos and San Benito. Dick Siderius only lived in Los Fresnos the last 8 years of his life. Otherwise, I believe he stayed in Ashton.

We were wondering if Kate Daniels, who married John Siderius, was married previously. It seems she had two children somewhere along the way. But, Ron and I both thought that John was not their father.

I never got to the LDS library here. I want to obtain the steamship records for the family's passage to New York. Do you happen to know the name of the ship they sailed on, and did they leave from Rotterdam?

School begins here tomorrow--I'll continue to sub in the hearing impaired/deaf program. My dwarf peach tree has had a bumper crop this year. I've canned and frozen all I need so am giving away the rest. They are yummy!

Will write more later. Love, Maxine

Dear Betty,

Thanks for Donald's e-mail address. I wrote him yesterday afternoon, and lo and behold! he responded early this morning. I was pleasantly surprised! Here is his message. Please let me know specifics of just what info you desire, and I will ask for it. Okay?

Maxine - Glad to hear from you.

I do not remember your visit to St. Louis Park in 1953. No surprise there I guess since I was only 2. Your description was pretty accurate of the area. We only lived there until 1955 and then moved to Minneapolis where we lived until 1973.

What specific information are you collecting? I can furnish the information you want.

Cordially,

Donald Everett Chase, Jr.

I hope to hear from you soon. Love, Maxine

In my Ed's family, his mother & her sister ended with irreconcilable differences. Ed's mother died in her early thirties, but the children never knew what happened to their maternal grandmother. The sister's children never knew they had five first cousins. These family stories of anger and hostility are so very sad. Anyway, when I saw the lack of information concerning the Minneapolis Chases, I decided to try to find Donald, Jr. I exhanged some e-mails with him, but I haven't heard anything from him since July 17. So my hopes of providing some information there have been dashed, but it is possible that as a much closer relative you might be able to get some information from him. He really doesn't need to go into storage to provide information about his family or his sisters family. Anyway, here is his e-mail address and the text of three e-mails that we exchanged. I did talk to him by phone in June, but he didn't have time to talk. E-Mail address: Dechasejr@aol.comE-Mail dated, Monday, July 17, 2000. Betty - I haven't forgotten about your request for information. Most of my family stuff is in storage. I hope to be able to locate that information soon. It will be emailed to you when I get it. Donald E. Chase, Jr.E-Mail dated Saturday, June 17, 2000. Betty - Good news. One of my cousins has done an extensive Chase family genealogy. They have it starting about 1638, I think. So I will email them with your note./I have a pretty busy schedule before June 24. So I suppose we could prearrange a time in the evening some night. (I tried to get a phone conversation about genealogy with him, but it didn't work out.) How much information are you collecting on each individual?/bye Don Chase (I realize now that I should have sent you a copy of this e-mail right away. Sorry.) Do you suppose the cousin he mentioned was Barbara Fratto? Maybe, one of the Minneapolis Chases did research. Anyway, I suppose that remark needs to be checked out. First E-Mail from Donald Chase dated Friday, June 16, 2000. Betty - I got you phone message the other day (I left a message on his answer phone, but I didn't know for sure he was a descendant of Clara & Everett.) Sorry I haven't responded sooner but I have not been home./Yes, my grandfather was Everett and grandmother was Clara. I never met either one of them./So let me know what or how I can help./Thanks/Don Chase My e-mails to him contained information about the siblings of Clara, and I gave him some information about my family in an effort to prove that I wasn't just prying. Maxine, I'm not really asking you to contact Donald unless you want to do so. If you want me to keep trying instead, just let me know. Love, Betty.

Dear Betty,
I do have limited information about Birdie and Dick Chase. I have copies of their obituaries from some newspaper. I'll just type what they say:

Chase--L.R. (Dick), age 69, of 5244 Upton Ave. S. Member of Westminster Presbyterian Church. Survived by wife, Birdie, 1 daughter, Mrs. Robert Miller of Edina, 2 granddaughters, Chandler and Larkin, 1 grandson, Whitney, 3 brothers, John, Donald and Clair. Funeral services Thursday afternoon at 1 o'clock. Werness Brothers Chapel, W. 50th St. Interment Fort Snelling. Friends may call at chapel beginning 5 o'clock Wednesday. (Betty--I know he died in June, 1963. Charles and I came back from our honeymoon, and my Dad told me of Uncle Dick's death.)

Mrs. Birdie N. Chase (Betty, I don't know the year or date of her death, sometime after 1963.)
Services for Mrs. Birdie N. Chase, 71, 5244 Upton Ave. S, who died Monday, will be held at 11 a.m. Thursday at Werness Brothers Mortuary, 3500 W. 50th St., with burial in Ft. Snelling National Cemetery.
Mrs. Chase was born in Newton, Wis., and lived in the Minneapolis area 41 years.
Survivors include a daughter, Mrs. Robert Miller, Edina, and a sister, Mrs. Harvey Hann.. (maybe Hanna-hard to read) of Ashton, SD.
The body will be at the mortuary after 5 p.m. today. Memorials are preferred to Westminster Presbyterian Church.

Ron Chase has tried several time to contact Joan Chase Miller, and has been unsuccessful. He is unsure even if he has the right Joan Miller. I believe I remember that she sold real estate, and that she divorced. From Dick's obituary, the grandson's name must be Whitney Miller--if that helps.

Dear Betty,

I am sorry to learn of Ed's surgery. However, Charles' Dad had a major stroke years ago. So, I realize the importance of getting the artery cleared--Charles' Dad had the procedure after the stroke! Not good.

I have some information from Donald. I will mail it to you tomorrow. He has responded to my inquiries. I have copied some of my stuff for him (he requested pictures of his family--Dad, Mom, he and Susan.) Said he didn't have many photographs, so I am happy to send them along. However, I haven't received his address or Susan's. He must be gone this week, as I haven't heard from him since before Thanksgiving.

I am so happy for the 14 security guards at Sandia Labs. What a stroke of luck! We've yet to buy a lottery ticket, but am considering it. Ha!

We are trying to rake leaves today, for the final time! So far have 44 bags. Isn't that absurd? We had our daughter and her husband, our son, my brother-in-law and neice, and my Mother-in-law for Thanksgiving. It was very nice to have everyone.

Will keep you updated when I hear again from Donald. Best wishes to you and Ed for his rapid recovery.

Love, Maxine

Hi Betty,

Glad to hear from you. The previous message concerning the Dick and Donald Chase chasm...well, I think that Donald, Jr. and Susan had very little opportunity to even know Joan Chase Miller, much less keep up with her today. There was minimal communication between the families, so I expect that Donald, Jr. and Susan have no interest in her whereabouts. It was Joan's parents who shunned Donald's family. A very sad situation, for sure! Dick and especially his wife, Birdie, were uppity people. I visited them when I was 13 yrs. old in Minneapolis--I accompanied Grandmother Chase there for a visit. Birdie never joined in the family visit--was too busy! But, Dick and Donald visited briefly when shuttling Grandmother and me back and forth between their houses. Uncle Melvin was there for a time, too. Being young, I wasn't fully aware of the problem. But, from remembering the visit, I feel that Birdie was mostly to blame for the split. Ron Chase verified that last summer when he visited us. As far as I was concerned, Uncle Dick and Uncle Donald were very kind to Grandmother and me. Ron reminded me that our trip to Minneapolis were terminated early because Birdie was in a snit! So, unless information drops from the heavens about Joan, we may never know about her. I remember that Uncle John (back in the early '80's) said she was divorced and working as a real estate agent. Guess she would be of retirement age. Wish I could be of more help.

Until later, love, Maxine

Dear Betty,

Thank you so very much for staying in touch, and for that GREAT piece of family genealogy that you sent last month. I appreciate just how much work you have put into it. Please know that I have read it all, and find it so fascinating.

So glad to hear that you and Ed are settled in Dana Point, and that things are so convenient for you. Sounds wonderful.

Today is our 38th wedding anniversary, and we are going to Taos for a long weekend. There are several museums there that we haven't visited so will enjoy that, and just being lazy. Yes, school is out, and I miss my students. I had a good semester, and learned a lot myself.

I haven't heard from anyone but Barbara Dale. Her school should be out now.

Thanks again for the information and know that it is very appreciated. Love, Maxine Ada's husband, Curtis Critchett, was b. 10 October 1868, Ontario, Vernon Co., Wisconsin.

Clara's husband, Everett W. Chase, was b. 17 April 1860, Bristol, Kenosha Co., Wisconsin.

These copies of pictures were sent to me a long time ago by Barbara Fratto. Most of my genealogy papers were in storage from about April 1994 to April 1997 while our house in Friday Harbor was on the market. I just found the pictures, and I'm trying to identify the people in the pictures. If you can help me, I would appreciate it.

#1. Picture was taken in LaCrosse, WI, LaCrosse Co. is adjacent to Vernon Co. I suspect that the lady in picture No. 1 was from the Critchett family.

#'s 2, 3, 4. The women in these pictures resemble each other. Stoughton & Madison are not far from Kenosha Co. They are very possibly from the Chase family as Everett Chase was b. in Bristol, Kenosha Co.

#'s 5 & 7. Pictures were taken in Westby, Wisconsin. Westby is very close to Ontario, Vernon Co., where Curtis Critchett was born. The children were probably from the Critchett family.

#6. Kate (Siderius) Anderson, wife of Alfred William Anderson, b. Glyndon, Mn, just east of Fargo, ND.

#8. Stoughton is in Dane Co., SE of Madison. It is not far from Kenosha Co. No. 8 is probably a Chase family member.

#9. Antigo, Wisconsin, is toward the NE corner of Wisconsin. Which family was that far north.

#10. Probably Fred Siderius and his wife, Alice Huber, and their son, Raymond, daughter, Helen.

#11. Probably Fred Siderius. He & his family lived in Portland. I will try to verify these pictures with one of their family members. bjl

#12. John Siderius (identified by Mrs. Hariette King)

#13. The male members of the Chase family have been identified, but the women have not been identified.

#14. One connection on No. 14. The man in the picture is Claus Zoodsma. Claus & Dorothy Zoodsma visited in Texas in 1949.

#'s 15 & 16 People in these photos have been identified.

PROBABLY CHASE FAMILY MEMBERS

Pictures No. 2, 3, 4, & 8 were probably Chase family members. No. 13 needs to have the women in the picture identified.

I don't have any ideas concerning picture No. 9.

bjl

PROBABLY CRITCHETT FAMILY MEMBERS

Pictures No. 1, 5, & 7 were probably Critchett family members.

I would appreciate your help in identifying the people in the photographs.

FROM: The Hills family in America by W.S. Hills

my wife," and provides that they be "demanded and received" for her. She probably was the mother of Jonathan (born about 1664), youngest son of the emigrant.

In the historical catalogue of the First Church of Hartford, the name of William Hills appears among those of the original and early members in connection with the words "dismissed July, 1683, moved to Hadley." William Hills bought a large tract of land at Hoccanum (East Hartford), and resided there for many years. From it he deeded to sons and sons-in-law. That he had not moved to that place in October, 1669, is clear, for the Colonial records show that he, with his sons William and John, were "freemen residing on the south side of Hartford" at that date. It is a matter of some doubt if his death, in 1683, occurred in East Hartford or in Hadley, the early home of the wife of his old age.

Concerning the genealogy of the early settlers of Connecticut, it should always be borne in mind that the town and church vital records are in a very vague, incomplete, and unsatisfactory condition. Consequently, in tracing the genealogy of the descendants of William Hills, of Hartford, no records can be found of the births and marriages of many of the first four generations of those who could claim him as an ancestor.

Fortunately the records of wills and administrations in the County Probate Courts furnish the names of most of the children of the descendants of those early days who were living at the death of their progenitor, and also those of grandchildren interested in the estates that passed through the courts. These, together with the land records in the Registries of Deeds, afford the only knowledge now obtainable of very many of the descendants of William Hills.

The editor of this work regrets that he has been unable to inspect a valuable private collection of genealogical data, which he has been informed has been collected by a resident of Hartford, who was born to the name and is a direct descendant of the emigrant of 1632. Speaking for all her more or less distant cousins he ventures to express the hope that it may yet be put into a form that will supplement the compilation of this genealogy. Condensing what the compiler has gathered into the usual form of a genealogical work the record begins with the first of the name who is known to have left Old for New England.

1. William¹, born in England came in ship "Lyon," arrived in Boston, September, 1632; probably died at Hartford, 1683, where his will was probated, December 6 of that year. Married 1st, Phillis Lyman, daughter of Richard and Sarah (Osborne) Lyman who emigrated from High Onger, Essex County, England, in 1631. He married, 2d, the widow of Richard Risley, who died prior to October 17, 1648, the date of the inventory of his estate. The date of her death is unknown. He married, 3d, Mary, widow of John Steele, Jr., of Farmington, who died there, 1653-4, daughter of Andrew Warner of Hadley, Hampshire. Co., Mass., who was living in 1681.

5. Benjamin² (William¹), b. Hartford, Conn.; d. Hartford, between 1726 and 1728. Married, January 11, 1688, Mary, daughter of John and (——) Bronson.

Children of Benjamin and Mary (Bronson) Hills:

32. BENJAMIN, b. —; d. (adm. granted July 3, 1733).
33. SUSANNAH, b. about 1692; m. John Kilbourn.
34. ABIGAIL, b. —; m. Samuel Stedman.
35. SAMUEL, b. about 1696; d. about 1777.
36. JOHN, b. at date unknown.

6. SUSANNAH^2 (William^1), b. Hartford, Conn., 1651; d. October, 1701. Married, March 4, 1673, John Kilbourn (son of John^2, Thomas^1), b. Weathersfield, Hartford Co., February 15, 1651, d. November 25, 1711.

Children of Susannah (Hills) and John Kilbourn:

i. SUSANNAH, b. Feb. 1674; d. May 7, 1685.

7. MARY^2 (William^1), b. Hartford, Conn. (Porter Gen. says 1654); d. —.

8. LIEUT. JONATHAN^2 (William^1), b. Hartford, Conn., about 1665; d. E. Hartford, Sept. 29, 1727. Married, 1st, Dorothy, daughter of Samuel and Mary Hale of Glastonbury, Hartford Co., Conn., b. 1667, d. E. Hartford, June 23, 1733. In a deposition sworn to by Jonathan Hills, September 1, 1692, he gave his age as twenty-eight years. The inference suggested by his birth date, that he was the son of the third wife of William^1, is made almost conclusive evidence by the language of his father's will and the fact that he left his homestead estate to him, reserving, however, "one halfe" of the "housen and lands" to his widow "dureing her naturall life."

Children of Lieut. Jonathan and Dorothy (Hale) Hills:

37. MARY, b. E. Hartford, July 29, 1688; m. —— Forbes.
38. THANKFULL, b. (bapt.) E. Hartford, June 26, 1692.
39. DOROTHY, b. (bapt.) " " Feb. 9, 1697; d. April 7, 1746.
40. CAPT. JONATHAN, b. " " Dec. 20, 1698; d. E. Hartford, Feb. 22, 1775.
41. ENSIGN DAVID, b. " " Oct. 2, 1702; d. May 25, 1758.
42. SARAH, b. E. Hartford, Oct. 1, 1706; d. —.
43. THANKFULL, b. E. Hartford, Dec. 9, 1710; d. —.

9. HANNAH^2 (William^1), b. Hartford, Conn., d. before October, 1712. Married, February 1, 1700, Serg. Thomas Kilbourn (John^2, Thomas^1) of Glastonbury, Hartford Co., Conn., 1653, d. October 3, 1712. (See Kilbourn Gen., p. 69.) Thomas Kilbourn was born 1578, in Wood Ditton, County of Cambridge, England, and was baptized there May 8 of that year.

Child of Hannah (Hills) and Thomas Kilbourn:

i. THOMAS KILBOURN, b. — 1705; d. — 1748.

10. SARAH^2 (William^1), b. Hartford, Conn. Married John Ward, of Middletown, Conn. A compiler of a Davis Genealogy who resides in Newark, N. J., says in a query published about August, 1902, in the genealogical department of the Hartford Times, that "Sarah Hills daughter of William and Phillis (Lyman) Hills . . . . Married first John Ward; second Stephen Davis, and died at Newark, N. J., in April or May, 1691." A bequest in her father's will, dated February, 1681, is to his "daughter Sarah Warde."

11. MARY^3 (William^2, William^1), b. Hartford, Conn., 1667; d. Hartford (buried August 15, 1693).

12. PHILLIS^3 (William^2, William^1), b. Hartford, Conn., 1669; d. —. Married John Parsons, December 1, 1698.

The Mother of My Wife

John Hoffman, the 1714 immigrant, had a family Bible in which he entered his parents, his birth, his first wife, their children, his second wife, and their children. John W. Wayland reported this information in "John Hoffman of Germanna and some of His Descendants," in the Virginia Magazine of History and Biography (volume 63, n.4, p. 454-460, October 1955). This formed the substantial basis for an article in Beyond Germanna (volume 11, n.2, p. 618) entitled "John Hoffman: Records from his Bible, 1663-1813."

His second family was large, twelve children in all. In the Bible record for the first seven of these children one of the sponsors was given as "the mother of my wife." John Hoffman gave no hint in any of the records as to the actual name of his mother-in-law. We know that the wife's name was Maria Sabina Folg. However, no Virginia record shows the Folg name except this Bible record of John Hoffman.

This puzzle was solved by Margaret James Squires and the results were reported in the first issue of Beyond Germanna (volume 1, n. 1, January 1989). The answer was found independently by Gary Zimmerman and Johni Cerny and reported in volume 4 of the Before Germanna series.

The story has its setting in the Hueffenhardt church in Baden where the people who lived on the Wagenbach farm attended church. To give the answer quickly to the question of who "the mother of my wife" was, she was Mrs. George (Barbara) Utz. George Utz was the step-father of Maria Sabina. In the German records, the Folg name is spelled Volck. The two names sound much the same and so John Hoffman wrote Maria Sabina's surname phonetically.

The story in the church records is complicated. There are three marriages that should be included. First, Anna Maria Unknown married Johann Michael Volck about 1685. There were seven children who were born from 1687 to 1704. The death of Anna Maria Unknown Volck is not in the Hueffenhardt church records which does have some gaps due to war.

Second, Johann Michael Volck married Anna Barbara Majer(s) on 27 January 1709. To this marriage, three children were born:
1. Maria Sabina Charlotta Barbara, b. 19 March 1710
2. Louisa Elisabetha, b. 23 March 1711
3. Maria Rosina, b. 22 August 1712
Johann Michael Volck died 7 April 1714 at the age of 51 years.

The widow, Anna Barbara (Majer) Volck married Johann Georg Utz on 10 July 1714. Two children were born in Germany:
1. Ferdinand, b. 3 April 1715
2. Johannes, b.25 July1716 and others were born in Virginia.

The head right list of the Second Colony members that Alexander Spotswood used gives these names:
Hans Jerich Otes, Parvara Otes, Ferdinandis Sylvania Otes, Anna Louisa Otes

From the count of names in the list, we know that one of the forty-eight names is missing. We can now say that the name "Ferdinandis Sylvania Otes" should be Ferdinand Utz and (Maria) Sabina Volck. The records gave all members of the George Utz party the name Otes and failed to distinguish the step-children of George Utz. There is a small problem with the baptismal name Louisa Elizabeth and the head right list name of Anna Louisa but there can be little doubt that we have the same family. From a comparison of the names we see that at least two of the children of Anna Barbara (Majer Volck) Utz died before reaching America.

From the count of names in the list, we know that one of the forty-eight names is missing. We can now say that th name "Ferdinandis Sylvanis Otes" should be Ferdinand Utz and (Maria) Sabina Volck. The records gave a members of the George Utz party the name Otes and failed to distinguish the step-children of George Utz. There a small problem with the baptismal name Louisa Elisabeth and the head right list name of Anna Louisa but ther can be little doubt that we have the same family. From a comparison of the names we see that at least two of th children of Anna Barbara (Majer Volck) Utz died before reaching America.

The head right names are given in three places. They appear in Cavaliers and Pioneers, Abstracts of Virginia Land Patents and Grants, vol. 3, pp. 411-412 as abstracted by Nell Marion Nugent. Some of the names are hard to read and she did not know the names from Germany so there are some weaknesses in her list of names. There is also a list in the Before Germanna booklets by Johni Cerny and Gary J. Zimmerman with a slightly scrambled order of the names. The best list is in Beyond Germanna, vol. 7, n.3, p.385, as read from Virginia Patent Book 14, p. 378ff taking advantage of German information.

In the baptismal reports from the Hoffman Bible, for the first family there was only one sponsor or witness for each child where both parents are Reformed. In the second family where the mother is Lutheran there are three witnesses. Apparently this was a concession by John Hoffman to his wife.

John Hoffman gave Maria Sabina's birth date as 29 March 1710, whereas the church record from Germany gives her birth date as 19 March 1710. Basically, this is the difference between the German New Style calendar and the English Old Style calendar.

We know something of ancestry of Johann Michael Volck and of Barbara Majer. Her father was Hans Majer of Wolfartweyher, a place which has not yet been identified with certainty. Something of the ancestry of George Utz is known. He came from Bavaria, just across the line from Wuerttemberg.

The list of sponsors is intriguing because we believe they were close to the family of John and Maria Sabina Hoffman. Several of the names in the history duplicate or suggest other Germanna names. For example, Volck and Walk may be the same. Also, Majer and Moyer may be the same.

What lessons do we learn from this? Foremost, is the important of consulting the German records where we can.

Photos of Wagenbach, Hueffenhardt, and of the villages in Bavaria where George Utz came from are shown on the German and Austrian Photographic Essay CD.

"In the Will Office at Bury St. Edmunds, are a number of yearly returns of Parish Registers from the year 1560, but they are far from being regular, and the different Parishes are so mixed together that it is a labor of some magnitude to search through them. In regard to your case, however, my labor was well rewarded, for I found a clue that enabled me to go at once to the village of your ancestors, where I found the Parish Register in good preservation, beginning in the year 1557. Wood Ditton, the place I speak of, is in Cambridgeshire, but in the Archdeaconry of Sudbury, in Suffolk, which accounts for the parish register returns being found at Bury St. Edmunds.

I am pretty well convinced that the family was early of Cambridgeshire, and a search among the Wills of that County, which commence at an early period, would afford much valuable information.

The following is what I found while searching at Bury St. Edmunds:

"BAPTISMS.

(1.) "At Weathersden, Co. Suffolk, Nov. 14, 1605, William, son of William Kilburne.

(2.) 1608, Jan. 3.—Andrew, son of William Kilborne, Clerk.

(3.) At Wood Ditton, Co. Cambridge, Sept. 9, 1621, Frances, daughter of Thomas Kilborne.

(4.) "1624, Sept. 29, JOHN, son of Thomas Kilborne.

(5.) "At Wethersden, Co. Suffolk, Dec. 27, 1631, Agnes, daughter of Andrew Kilborne; and was buried 15th of March following."

This last return is signed by "William Kilborne, Rector."

(6.) "Married—at Wiverstone, Co. Suffolk, Sept. 20, 1630, Andrew Kilborne to Mary Howell alias Smith."

The search was continued to 1648.

Very truly, yours, H. G. SOMERBY.

From the above records I infer that the John Kilborne marked "(18.)" was the father of Thomas Kilborne, the emigrant, numbered (13). The children of the latter who embarked in the "Increase," are those numbered (3,) (4,) (20,) (24,) (25,) The entry of baptisms, (as copied by Mr. Somerby,) gives to Thomas and Frances no daughter Mary to correspond with the name of the third daughter on board the "Increase;" while of Elizabeth (23,) I have found nothing but the record of her baptism. As she would, if living, have been twenty-one years old at the date of the embarkation of the family in 1635, she may have been previously married and settled in England; or she may have died young.

Thomas Kilborne, numbered (21,) is, as will be seen, named in the Will of Agatha Borrowdale. The only other mention I have found of him is contained in the following extract of a letter from the Hon. James Savage, of Boston, dated Nov. 26, 1847:

"Early this year I received, from the London State Paper Office, transcripts from vols. 372 and 375 of returns to the Privy Council from Ipswich of passengers in two ships—the Elizabeth and the Frances—bound for New England, April 1634, and from Southampton of passengers in the ship Bevis, bound, &c., May 1638. Of course you know, that ships from Ipswich would bring Suffolk passengers—not Devonshire, any more than Norwegians. I throw this in, because one of your correspondents, giving an extract from a family bible, says—'Two brothers came over from Devonshire,' &c. I have furnished you authentic accounts of THOMAS, aged 55, with wife FRANCIS, 50, and five children between 10 and 23 years old, who came from London in 1635. From the only son then mentioned you derive descent. But here is the curiosity. My office copy of passengers in the Elizabeth of Ipswich, from Ipswich, April 1634, has 'Thomas Kilborne, aged 24, and Elizabeth, his wife, aged 20.' Conjecture as easily springs up here, as I ever recollect in any case—that this Thomas was the eldest son of Thomas, and was sent away immediately on getting his wife, to look out in the new country proper fields for father, mother, brother and sisters next year. We know from Gov. Winthrop, that the two Ipswich ships had good passage, lost very few cattle and no passengers. If you, then, have any branches of a great family that you could not discover the origin of, here is a chance."

The conjecture of Judge Savage that this Thomas Kilborne was the eldest son of Thomas and Frances, is proved by the foregoing records to (21.) "1609.—Thomas Kilborne, the sonne of Thomas Kylborne and Frances, his wife, was baptized the xxixth daye of November.

(22.) "1611-12.—George Kylborne, the sonne of Thomas Kylborne and Frances, his wife, was baptized the xxiith daye of Februarie.

(23.) "1616.—Elizabeth Kylborne, the daughter of Thomas Kylborne and Frances, his wife, was baptized the xxiii of Maie.

(24.) "1619.—Lydia Kylborne, the daughter of Thomas Kylborne and Frances, his wife, was baptized the xxvith daye of Julye.

(25.) "1623.—Frances Kilborne, the daughter of Thomas Kilborne, was baptized xxth of Septembr."

The search was continued to 1645.

Very truly, yours, H. G. Somerby.

From the above records I infer that the John Kilborne marked "(18,)" was the father of Thomas Kilborne, the emigrant, numbered (15). The children of the latter who embarked in the "Increase," are those numbered (1,) (4,) (20,) (24,) (25,). The entry of baptisms, (as copied by Mr. Somerby,) gives to Thomas and Frances no daughter Mary to correspond with the name of the third daughter on board the "Increase;" while of Elizabeth (23,) I have found nothing but the record of her baptism. As she would, if living, have been twenty-one years old at the date of the embarkation of the family in 1635, she may have been previously married and settled in England; or she may have died young.

Thomas Kilborne, numbered (21,) is, as will be seen, named in the Will of Agnes Symondsdale. The only other mention I have found of him is contained in the following extract of a letter from the Hon. James Savage, of Boston, dated Nov. 26, 1847:

"Early this year I received, from the London State Paper Office, transcripts from vols. 372 and 373 of returns to the Privy Council from Ipswich of passengers in two ships—the Elizabeth and the Frances—bound for New England, April 1634, and from Southampton of passengers in the ship James, bound, &c., May 1635. Of course you know, that ships from Ipswich would bring Suffolk passengers—not Devonshire, any more than Norwegians. I throw this in, because one of your correspondents, giving an extract from a family bible, says—'Two brothers came over from Devonshire,' &c. We know from Gov. Winthrop, that the two Ipswich ships had good passage, lost very few cattle and no passengers. If you, then, have any branches of a great family that you could not discover the origin of, here is a chance."

The conjecture of Judge Savage that this Thomas Kilborn was the eldest son of Thomas and Frances, is proved by the foregoing records to have been correct, and his other suggestion is certainly a plausible one. His subsequent history, however, is lost to us. As no trace of him or of his descendants has been found in this country, may he not have returned to England on the death of his father—which took place four or five years after the above date?

George Kilborne (22,) also mentioned in Agatha Borrowdale's Will, can scarcely be any other than the individual of that name who was at Roxbury, Massachusetts, in 1638, and soon after settled in Rowley, in the same Province. He is the recognized head of the "Rowley Branch" of the Kilborne Family, and the above record establishes the fact (previously unknown,) that George Kilborne of Rowley was a brother of Sergt. John Kilborne, of Wethersfield, Connecticut. Thomas Kilborne, of Wethersfield, may therefore be regarded as the progenitor of all who bare the name on the Western Continent.

In reply to a letter of enquiry, addressed to the Rector of the Parish of Wood Ditton, the Rev. J. Walker, I received the following letter which, it will be seen, contains several items of special interest. It arrived in Litchfield during my absence in England:

"Wood Ditton, Cambridgeshire, Eng., May 31, 1855.

"Dear Sir.—I send you some extracts from a tattered and imperfect book in our Parish Chest. It contains, principally, annual accounts of Rates levied and expended by the Church Wardens, and Overseers of the Poor, in the 17th century; but on a few leaves at the beginning there are memoranda of the annual distribution of Gifts made by charitable individuals to the poor. These annual donors were, Walter Pratt, the Elder, for two gifts of twenty shillings and ten shillings respectively, and John Kilburne a gift of six shillings and eight pence.

"Entry No. 1—(being the first writing in the book as it now exists:)

"1617.—Mem., That the yerle gefte of John Kilborne of syxe shillings eyghte pennes was giveyn by the hands of Thomas Ryle and William Bredrake, Church Wardens, the xv daye of Marche, Anno Domini, 1617."

There are similar memoranda nearly every year from the above date to 1629. Then comes the following entry:

"Memorand.—That the yearely gift of sixe shillings eight pence of John Kilburne was given by the hands of John Pratt and John Martyn, Church Wardens of Wood Ditton, Anno Domini 1630; by the handes of John Potter and Richard Clarke, Anno Domini 1631: and by the handes of Thomas Kilburne and Thomas Pratt, Anno Domini 1632; and by the hands of John Siser and William Pratt, the 23d day of March, Anno Domini, 1633."

There are similar memoranda separately for the years 1635, 1638, and 1639. The two latter I transcribe:

"Memorand.—That the yearely gift of sixe shillings eight pence per annum of John Kilburne, was given by the hands of John Dillamore and John Elsing, Church Wardens, of May, Anno Domini, 1638."

"Memorand.—That the yearly gift of vi shillings viii pence of John Kilburne was given the xiith day of May, 1639."

took by mistake

John, therefore, seems to have remained at Wood Ditton after the departure of the other members of the family.*

The first page of the accounts contains the " Rate made for the Church," August the 10th, A. D., 1632. It contains these items, viz.:

" Thomas Kilborne, 9 score acres, £1 : 10 : 0.
" Thomas Kilborne, for timber, £0 : iv : 0.
" Thomas Kilborne, for slabbs and tymber, 0 : v : 0."

The first of these appears to be a statement of the number of acres occupied by him, and the Rate to be levied on it. The latter two items refer apparently to materials appropriated to his own use, and here accounted for. They were probably remnants after the completion of some repairs executed during his church wardenship this year [1632]; for immediately above, we find—

" Thomas Pratt, for chipps, - - - v$^{s.}$
" Anthony Collin, for Rubbish, - - - i$^{s.}$"

The next page contains an account of a Rate under the 16th of January, 1633, wherein Thomas Kilborne is rated on five score and ten acres only, as follows:

" Thomas Kilborne, 5 score and 10 Acres, - - ix$^{s.}$"

I am, dear sir, faithfully yours, J. WALKER.

In company with my kinsman, heretofore named, I visited Wood Ditton and had the pleasure of going through the very church edifice in which our ancestors were baptized, and where one of them officiated as Church Warden two hundred and twenty-three years ago. The building, I was assured, is between five and six hundred years old—and bids fair, if left undisturbed, to withstand the storms of five hundred years to come! I was disappointed in not meeting with the Rector, who was absent from town. The country around is one of the most fertile and beautiful to be found in England—the surface being rolling, and the scenery rich and varied. The luxuriant hedge-rows, which, in some places, were still in blossom, skirted the Macadamized highways and divided the fields; while the huge and picturesque windmills swayed their long arms on the neighboring hill-tops. The village dwellings and the farm houses have a much more tasteful and home-like appearance than in many other parts of the island, and everything wore an air of rural thrift and comfort. I could not but think how often and how lovingly the thoughts of those pioneers must have reverted to their native land—with what deep emotions they must sometimes have contrasted their wild forest-home on the banks of the Connecticut with the fair scenes to which they had bidden a final farewell! Yet, with the true spirit of that heroic age, they fainted not in the hour of trial and danger; but lived to see " the wilderness and the solitary place" made vocal with the hum of industry and the song of praise.

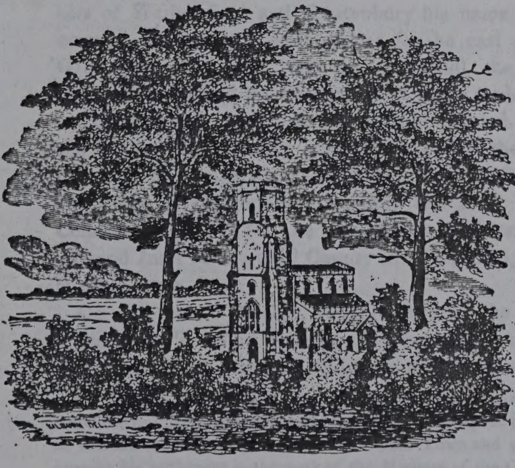
* Mr. Walker was doubtless not aware that John Kilborne, (the brother of Thomas,) did not come to America at all. John, the son of Thomas, was but a lad of ten years at the date of the emigration.—P. K. K.

Torn by mistake

We sought in vain for the precise locality where our fathers had dwelt. No record or traditionary evidence exists, so far as we could learn, indicating the identity of the "9 score acres" occupied and perhaps owned, by Thomas Kilborne, in 1632. Our family name has long been extinct in the parish. With mingled feelings of sadness and delight, we trod the same paths and looked upon the very scenes that had been familiar to our ancestors through successive generations previous to the emigration. We went as pilgrims to a shrine, to do homage to the memory of the long departed and the long forgotten!



THE OLD CHURCH AT WOOD DITTON, ENGLAND.

GENERATION III.

CHILDREN OF SERGT. JOHN KILBOURN.

JOHN, (the ancestor of all the Kilbourns of the Glastenbury Branch,) was born in Wethersfield on the 15th of February, 1651; married Susannah Hills, daughter of William Hills, on the 4th of March, 1673, and soon after settled "on the east side of the Great River," in what was then called Naubuck, now Glastenbury. He was admitted a Freeman, October 13th, 1681. On the list of Town Officers of Wethersfield and Glastenbury his name frequently occurs. He was a "fence-viewer for the east side of the Great River" in 1685, 1689, &c. In 1690, the people of Naubuck petitioned the General Court to be made a distinct town; and their prayer was soon after granted. In 1691, the subject of this notice was chosen one of the Listers of the town of Wethersfield; in 1693 and in 1708, he was a Selectman of Glastenbury; in 1696 and 1705, he was a Constable; and in 1710, he was chosen a Lister. He was a Grand Juror of Hartford County in 1695, 1700, 1703, and at other times.

On the 22d of October, 1692, (soon after the settlement of the Rev. Timothy Stevens, the first minister of Glastenbury,) he gave a parcel of land for a parsonage, as follows:

"I, the said John Kilburn, for divers causes and considerations him thereunto moving, and chiefly and principally for the good affection that he beareth unto Timothy Stevens of the said Town and place, and to promote his settlement in the work of the Ministry of the Gospel, in the said town of Glassonbury, hath given," &c.; said land was "bounded east, west, and north, on his land, and south on his Father's Serjt. John Kilburn's land," &c.

Town Meeting, Glastenbury, Jan. 9, 1692–3.—"Serjt. Samuel Wells, Joseph Smith, and John Kilburn, were appointed a Committee to carry on the whole work of building the said house for the Rev. Mr. Stephens."

"At a Town meeting held at Glastonbury, March 22, 1696, It was voted, that John Kilburn should have half a mile square of Land adjoining to the Candlewood plain."

The following is the list of Grand Jurors of Hartford county, appointed and sworn April 1, 1695, viz.—Deac. John Wilson, William Pitkin, John Catlin, George Griswold, Benjamin Newbury, Samuel Gibbs, Henry Buck, Ebenezer Kilbourn, Thomas Porter, John Hart, Peter Buel, John Hall, John Kilbourn, Timothy Stanley, Daniel Cone.

Susannah, wife of John Kilbourn, died October, 1701, aged 50; and on the 12th day of May, 1702, he was married to Elizabeth, daughter of John Mitchell, of Hartford. He departed this life on the 25th of November, 1711; his wife, Elizabeth, d. June 8, 1718. The children of John and Susannah were, Susannah, John, Ebenezer, Jonathan, Benjamin, David, and Abraham.

"LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT OF JOHN KILBOURN, SEN'R., LATE OF GLASSENBURY, DECEASED.

"In the name of God, Amen. I, JOHN KILBOURN, Sen'r, of the Town of Glastenbury, in the County of Hartford, in the Colony of Connecticut, in New England. Knowing that it is appointed for men once to die, and considering the uncertainty as to the time of death, withall knowing it to be the Will of God, who in his tender visitation calls upon me to set my house in order before I die, and I being (though weak in body) yet of perfect and sound understanding and memory, and of disposing mind, Praise be to Almighty God, Do make and ordain this my last Will and Testament in manner and form following. I commend my soul into the hands of Almighty God, hoping through the merits of Christ to obtain free pardon of all my sins and to inherit Eternal Life, and my body I commit to the Earth to be decently buried at the discretion of my Executors hereafter named; and concerning my outward Estate, since the Earth is the Lord's and the fullness thereof, to him therefore belongs the Praise that I possess in this kind; and as for the portion thereof that he hath given me, it is my mind and Will that after my decease, the by her had sons, James, Thomas, (and probably) John, Benjamin, and Gershom—the three last named being b. in Morris county, N. J., where Ebenezer (the father) d. about 1732.

4. JONATHAN, b. in Glastenbury, Sept. 17, 1681, and settled in Colchester in 1707, where he was living in 1755. He was admitted as a Joint Proprietor of that town in 1713; and was appointed "Way Warden" in 1715, 1727, &c. He had children, Jonathan, Hezekiah and Elizabeth.

5. BENJAMIN, b. in Glastenbury, March 30, 1684. He probably died previous to 1713—as the estate of his brother David, who died that year, was distributed equally between his brothers John, Ebenezer, Jonathan and Abraham; no mention being made of Benjamin, who would, if living, have been entitled by law to an equal share with the others.

6. DAVID, b. in Glastenbury, February 25, 1687; was chosen a Hayward in 1711; and died in 1713, leaving no descendants.

7. ABRAHAM, Esq., b. in Glastenbury, Aug. 25, 1691; m. Sarah, daughter of John Mitchell of Hartford, June 5, 1712. Their children were Mitchell, Abraham and Elizabeth. Sarah, his wife, having died Oct. 3, 1719, he married Mary, daughter of Samuel Tudor, of Windsor, and had Joseph, Sarah and Lucy. Mary, his second wife, died Aug. 5, 1751, and on the 23d of April, he married Abigail House. Mr. K. was a constable of Glastenbury for seven years; a Lister for seven years; Town Treasurer for three years; and Selectman for eighteen years—besides being a Surveyor, Collector and Moderator. He was a Representative to the General Court in 1721, 1730, and 1756. He died in 1770.

FROM THE GLASTENBURY RECORDS.

1725. "Voted, That the east and west sides of the Commons, called the Fourth mile, be settled and ascertained by bound-marks and running the line thereof,—and that Lieut. Benjamin Talcote, Mr. Nath'l. Talcot, Gershom Smith, Abraham Kilborn and Thomas Kimberly be, or any three of them, be a Committee at the charge of the town to do the work."

Dear Connie & Don:

I am enclosing some copies of census records for some of the children of George and Eliza Hopkins.

Our local branch library orders census microfilm for me from the State library system. It is a great opportunity to spend plenty of time researching individual county census records. They also have an automatic microfilm reader which allows me to make copies. I really like to make copies from the microfilm since I don't always trust my handwritten notes.

Do you know where Irvin Hopkins settled in Alaska? I will check the Internet again for the residences of the current Hopkins residents. I will try to find him and his family on the 1910 & 1920 census. I'm not sure when the 1930 census will be released, but it will probably be a few years yet. The records are not made available for research for 70+ years. I'm sure of the exact number of years.

Saturday, we are going to Eagle Lake in Lassen County for a week of fishing. Last year, we caught our limit of Eagle Lake trout every day. I hope our luck holds for this year.

On October 1, we plan to leave for ND. We will visit relatives in ND, MN, & MO until about the 18th of October. If the weather cooperates, I want to go to Columbia & Dane Counties in Wisconsin for a few days of genealogy research. We have to go to Racine Co. because Ed's great grandfather lived in Kenosha & Racine Counties from 1850 to 1890. We have been there before, but we always hope that we missed something.

I really like to go to the area where ancestors lived. We usually go to the count houses for deed records and vital records, local libraries, and cemeteries. I have tried unsucessfully to find the burial site for James Salisbury. The Wisconsin State Old Cemetery Society was unable to find the grave site for James Salisbury, Eliza & George Hopkins, Susan Curtis, or Lydia Keefer. If we get to Columbia County, we will check the cemteries in Dekorra.

Well, enough of all this genealogy talk. I hope all is well with you both. If you find anymore information, I would very much like to have copies. I'll keep you up-to-date about anything I find.

Sincerely,

Dear Eleanor:

I really am embarrassed for being so slow in getting back to you. You were very helpful in finding the death certificate for Martha Kent. Martha was my grandmother's cousin. I appreciate your efforts on my behalf.

This summer has been a bit of disaster. We were away on a camping trip when your letter arrived, we had visits from children, and we got into a bit of a home-improvement project. My genealogy research took a back-seat to other things for awhile.

On the 1st of October, we are planning a trip to ND, MN, MO, WI, and southern California. I hope to do some genealogy research along the way. The trip is mainly a visit to relatives in the midwest. We had a daughter in Houston, TX, as well, but they moved to southern California in July.

I'm finding more information about my grandmother's cousins as I go along. Please let me know how much you charge for each hour of searching. I'm enclosing a check for $15., and I hope that amount covers your time and costs.

Sincerely,

Betty Leach

P.S. I like your letterhead. I should do something like that.

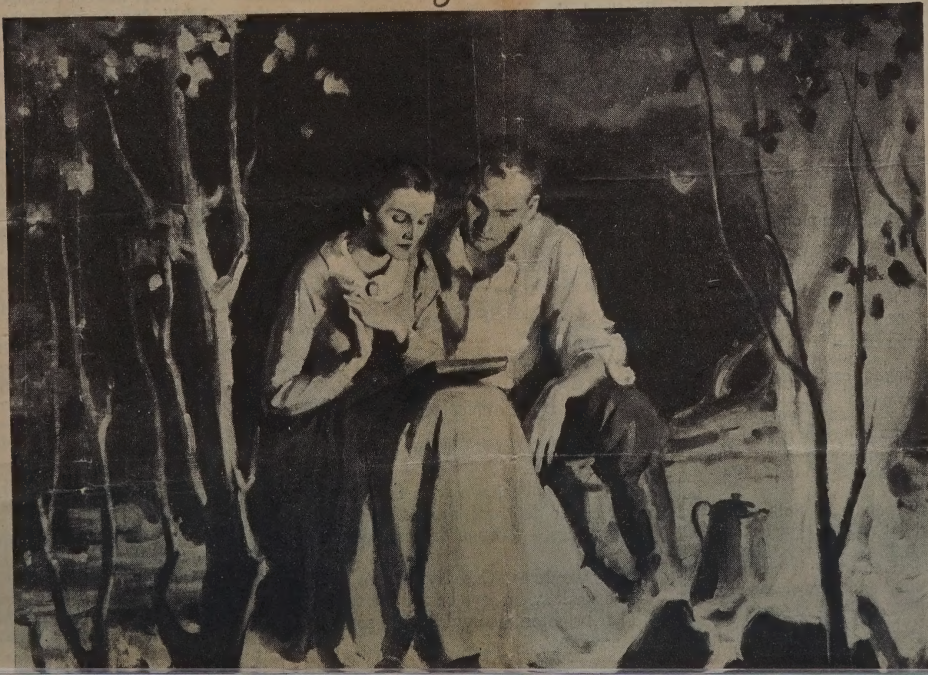
Anne and Angus Find Happiness and the Meaning of

LEATHER HINGES

Save this. Will you.



"But the old pieces of leather I am afraid you will laugh at. They are not beautiful but they opened the doors of our honeymoon house"

Synopsis

HER husband, Tommy White, having been killed in one of the last skirmishes of the Civil war, Mary is forced to manage their farm near La Crosse alone. She does it so well that there are means for a comfortable living and for the educating of her four children, Anne, Matthew, Robert and Mark.

Every member of the family enters into the life and affairs of the community. They are intensely interested in the fight between agriculture and the railroads and in the growth of organized agriculture as represented by the Grange.

Hugh Price, a girlhood friend of Mary's and once a neighbor of her's and her family back in Wales, comes from his home in the East to find that grasshoppers have destroyed his crops, and with the crops has gone his equity in several farms. He had planned to ask Mary to marry him, but now he turns toward the West to regain his fortune.

On and on the song swept, tears streaming down Robert's wind-tanned face; Mary singing with a smile that was battling back the tears of her heart:

"For auld lang syne, my dear,
For auld lang syne,
We'll tak' a cup o' kindness
yet
For auld lang syne!"

Anne and Angus Find Happiness and the Meaning of

LEATHER HINGES

Save this. Will you.

HUGH J. HUGHES

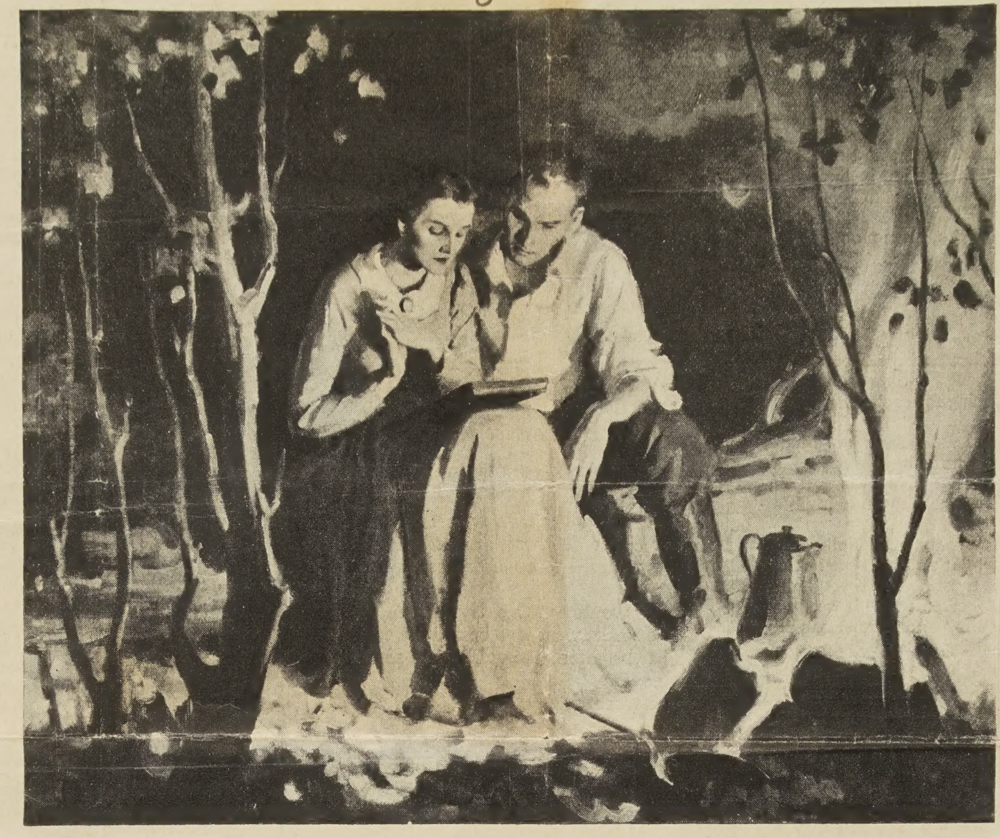
Synopsis

HER husband, Tommy White, having been killed in one of the last skirmishes of the Civil war, Mary is forced to manage their farm near La Crosse alone. She does it so well that there are means for a comfortable living and for the educating of her four children, Anne, Matthew, Robert and Mark.

Every member of the family enters into the life and affairs of the community. They are intensely interested in the fight between agriculture and the railroads and in the growth of organized agriculture as represented by the Grange.

Hugh Price, a girlhood friend of Mary's and once a neighbor of her's and her family back in Wales, comes from his home in the East to find that grasshoppers have destroyed his crops, and with the crops has gone his equity in several farms. He had planned to ask Mary to marry him, but now he turns toward the West to regain his fortune.

The following weeks are sad ones for Mary, not only because of the disaster that has come to her friend, but also because one of her sons, Mark, brooding over a quarrel with the girl he had intended to marry, leaves home, destination unknown. But there is also some happiness for her. She is happy because of her daughter's happiness in her love for Angus Hay.



"But the old pieces of leather I am afraid you will laugh at. They are not beautiful but they opened the doors of our honeymoon house"

Chapter IV

UNDER the spreading bur oak tree, standing on a carpet of grass, with the great crimson rambler in full bloom as a background, Angus Hay and Anne White spoke the words that made them husband and wife . . .

"Dearly Beloved! . . . " it was Father Medd speaking the lines, "we are gathered together here in the sight of God . . . to join together this man and this woman . . . reverently, discreetly, soberly and in the fear of God . . .

"Angus, wilt thou have this woman to be thy wedded wife. . . . Wilt thou love her, comfort her, honor and keep her in sickness and in health . . . so long as ye both shall live?"

"I will!"

"Anne, wilt thou have this man to be thy wedded husband . . . and forsaking all others, keep thee only unto him, so long as ye both shall live?"

"I will!"

Old Prince, his eyes dim with age, crept up and laid his muzzle in the hand of his young mistress, as though somehow he knew that this was no ordinary occasion and he wanted her assurance that everything was all right. She stroked his head, and he went and laid down in the sun.

And then the troth-giving: "I, Angus, take thee, Anne, to be my wedded wife, to have and to hold from this day forward, for better for worse, for richer for poorer, in sickness and in health to love and to cherish, till death do us part, according to God's holy ordinance, and thereto I plight thee my troth." The words came slowly, trembling with emotion. Then:

"I, Anne, take thee, Angus, to be my wedded husband, to have and to hold from this day forward, for better for worse, for richer for poorer, in sickness and in health, to love and to cherish and to obey, till death do us part, according to God's holy ordinance, and thereto I give thee my troth."

Firmly, bravely spoken, little Anne!

And then the voice of Father Medd, speaking softly, asking that God might be very good to these young people —praying for them lives of usefulness and happiness, after which:

"Those whom God hath joined together let no man put asunder . . . I pronounce Angus and Anne man and wife, in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost. Amen."

The neighbors were gone—gone after wishing Anne and her husband all the good things that life could bring—gone after giving them, shyly or more outspokenly, advice that was well meant, and some of it worth while.

AND the dinner of the Whites and the Hays was over—a huge farm dinner served under the same tree where the wedding so shortly before had taken place—served at a huge table made for the occasion, with Mary sitting at the head and Robert and Janet Hay at the foot; Angus and Anne on either side of Mary, the sons and daughters and uncles and aunts and cousins ranging along either side. Tall, and straight, and grizzled, Robert Hay drank his toast to the bride—a toast full of humor, full of hearty faith in the future, a toast drunk in—milk! And Mary had given the toast to the groom, her little figure erect, her eyes smiling, her heart hungering to delay the parting. And then, standing hand in hand about the table, they had given to each other the ancient Ramnian oath, Mary's clear voice ringing it out, even as it had done when she explained to all of them what it had come to mean in the lives of the Whites:

" Now I will stand at thy right hand
To keep the bridge with thee!"

And then, still standing, with Angus and Anne in the center of the circle, Robert Hay's great voice had led in

"Should auld acquaintance be forgot
An' never brought tae min'?
Should auld acquaintance be forgot
And days of auld lang syne?"

On and on the song swept, tears streaming down Robert's wind-tanned face; Mary singing with a smile that was battling back the tears of her heart:

"For auld lang syne, my dear,
For auld lang syne,
We'll tak' a cup o' kindness yet
For auld lang syne!"

And then, still smiling, her hands out in benediction: "God be with us all until we meet again! God be good to us, and give us life, and love, and peace!"

Then the boys had raced to the stables to bring out the teams and the stock. For the last month they had been breaking in the cattle to the lead ropes. The horses were already harnessed and fed and watered, ready for the wagon tongues. The hogs and chickens were already loaded, the goods and gear for the home and farm that was to be were packed carefully away under the heavy tarpaulins stretched over bended hickory boughs, the work of Angus' younger brothers. In the forward wagon, beneath its one spring seat, were stored Anne's most precious things—her books, her Longfellow and Shakespeare and Moore, her "Scarlet Letter" and "Romola" and "Westward Ho!", her college books—her "Caesar" and "Beginner's Greek" and the "March of the Ten Thousand," her "History of the World" and "Physical Geography" and "Natural Philosophy" among them. Angus' books—his John Stuart Mill and his Spencer, his Byron and well-thumbed Burns were stored in the same box with Anne's—a box covered with sheeting that had been boiled in linseed oil to give it sure protection against rain or dampness.

Here, too, in the forward wagon, were her needlework and her sewing machine, the latter given, out of their very little, by Evan and Sue. New, shiny, it stood in its crate, wrapped securely in oiled sheeting. Here were the quilts and comforters, the sheets and pillow slips, the feather pillows and the two deep, resilient feather ticks, tidies and throws and the pair of heavy lace curtains that Grandmother Lloyd had brought over from the Old Country. There was a barrel of dishes, among them a cracked cup and a chipped plate that had come over in the Crossing; there were pots and kettles and pans. The old crock churn of Anne's little girlhood memories stood beneath the table that folded its leaves down over it protectingly . . .

THE second wagon carried the larger pieces of furniture, the plow and cultivator and harrow, the hay rake and the mower, the reaper and the score-and-one smaller but no less important tools that Angus' father had thought of and provided with loving care. There was grain for at least a part of the journey, and salt, and bravely-shining new lanterns and water pails. There was a tool box, with its small kit of more essential carpenter's tools, all these loaded carefully onto a wide platform, that with a few boards removed, would become a hay rack. And over all arched the tarpaulin of the pioneers . . .

The boys, Robert and Matthew and Angus' brothers, were hitching up the horses. They were leading the cattle into position behind the first wagon. They were going over and over the loading arrangement, to see that everything was secure . . .

Old Prince was walking about, anxiously, nuzzling first one and then the other, getting no explanations of all this mystery . . .

And now the boys were bringing out Angus' fifth horse, Nellie, on her back the deep pommel saddle that had carried Angus' father from Philadelphia to North Bend—that was to carry Angus on . . .

ANNE and Angus stood in the front room, ready for the final leave-taking. Anne's wedding dress and shoes were already carefully laid away and in their stead she was wearing her stout calfskin everyday shoes and her blue gingham dress. Her sunbonnet was thrown back on her shoulders. At her throat was a pin, medallion-shaped, and beneath its gold-rimmed glass a miniature—Tommy White as he had been in the days before Mary came into his life . . .

Robert and Janet Hay were standing beside their boy, mutely trying to convey to him their pride in him . . . their confidence and their love.

Mary touched Anne, drew her aside.

"Tell Angus I want to see both of you, just a moment!"

"Angus, Mother wants us!"

Angus turned and they followed Mary into the kitchen, and through the kitchen into the garden.

Mary turned: "Children, there's something I want to tell you . . . and I don't know how . . . You'll try and help me, won't you? Try to understand me, won't you, my dears?"

Together, with their hands groping for each other, they nodded.

"Your Father . . . Tommy and I . . . we just blundered into happiness . . . I want you to be sure to find it . . . I want you to be as happy . . . as we were . . ." and for the first time in all that day, tears swam in Mary's eyes.

"Don't be afraid of passion, my dears! . . . Folks talk as if it was something—disgusting! It's not! It can be the most beautiful thing in your lives together . . . if you let it be . . . They've changed the old ceremony. It used to read 'With my body I thee worship,' and that means all that passion means, and a lot more. Be good to each other, my dears! You can't be all that you think of being to each other without you want each other in that way—want each other terribly! And you can't have all that you ought to have of happiness unless you give yourselves to each other that way, joyfully and fully . . . Be good to her, Angus . . . gentle and tender with her . . . she's just a girl, and you can make her love you wonderfully . . . Be his woman, Anne, every bit of you! . . . Body as well as soul . . . You were wanted! That's the way I want you to love him—and the babies I hope you will have together . . . "

They stood with their heads bowed, their faces crimson, their interlocked fingers tightening until the knuckles showed white. And then, suddenly, Angus stooped, gathered Mary into his arms, and kissed her very tenderly. Then, looking into her eyes with his own clear blue Scotch eyes, "Thank you, Mother! . . . I was hoping somebody who knew would tell us what we ought to know . . . I'll be good to her—'as long as we both shall live,'" he quoted, as he sat Mary down, and Anne threw her arms around her mother's neck in a wordless message of understanding.

Their moment of revelation was over. Robert came shouting:

"Angus! Anne! Everything's ready when you are!"

Anne mounted to the driver's seat, picked up the reins. Angus laid his hand on the pommel of Nellie's saddle and vaulted into his seat, "Are you ready, Anne? Let's . . ."

Suddenly Mary turned and ran toward the house. "Wait!" she shouted over her shoulder. The lines relaxed.

Back Mary came, running: "I almost forgot this, Anne! Take it, and keep it, and when you are through with it, give it . . . to . . . your . . . " The face that had smiled all day long was working for control. No other words would come. Anne picked up the package, laid it gently on the seat beside her . . . gathered up the lines . . .

Old Prince, pressing forward between those gathered around the wagon, whined wistfully, wagging his bushy tail.

"Prince wants to go along!" Robert said, trying to break the tension of the moment with some casual remark. "Want to go, don't you, Prince?"

The old shepherd dog raised his head, "Woof! Woof, Woof!"

"I believe he does!" Evan spoke. "Want to go with Anne, old fellow?"

"Woof! Woof! Woof!"

"Here, then!" And Evan lifted him into the wagon box. With a wiggling of his old, rheumatic body and a great threshing about of his tail he climbed into the seat beside Anne, sat up on his haunches, and cocked his ears forward.

"Come down, now, old fellow!" Matthew called, reaching his arms up for him. For answer, Old Prince thrust his muzzle into Anne's elbow, and leaned his weight against her.

"Let him go! He'll come back tonight!" Evan signaled to Angus to start.

The cattle whip in Angus' hand swung out, the lash hissed through the air:

Crack!

"Easy boys! Ge' up! Mollie! Kate!"

Crack!

The little cavalcade was on its way! As for a hundred years in similar fashion the men and women of the Marching had been setting forth, so Angus and Anne fared into the Westland, the mid-afternoon sun shining upon their gallant new tarpaulins, turning into gold the dust that rose from the tramping hoofs of their horses and cattle, the rolling of their wagon wheels.

Anne, her little body erect, loosely grasping the reins in hands used to the feel of leather, braced her feet on the dashboard and spoke to her eager team:

Wish for the New Year

By Harriet Joor

I WOULD not wish you cloudless skies
And path all strewn with flowers;—
For richer depth of knowledge comes,— Sometimes,—through darkest hours.

But I would ask this day for you
The small sweet joys beside the way,
That brighten, like wild, wind-sown flowers,
The worker's day;

With loyal love of a faithful few
To fill the deep, heart-need of you;
And hope, clear-shining along the way,
To give you strength from day to day.

"Easy, Susie! . . . Take it easy, Girl! . . . Easy . . . that's a girl!"

Angus rode alongside . . . in the rear . . . wherever needed to keep the little procession in order. The pigs squealed, the chickens cackled with excitement, the heifers lowed at all this unusual procedure.

Old Prince, from his seat beside Anne, looked steadily down the road . . .

"Steady, boys! . . . Steady there!"

IT HAD been agreed that this was to be the parting . . . no useless heart-wracking after-farewells! But that when they reached the Dug-Way they were to halt and look back . . .

They stopped, climbed the steep bank of the sandstone ledge, stood at last on its top, and looked homeward.

The little weather-stained house beneath the bur oak tree caught the afternoon sun. And on its gently sloping roof they could see, even at the mile's distance, little figures that they knew to be Mary and Evan and Sue and Robert and Matthew and the babies—and Angus' people, now Anne's.

Anne waved her sunbonnet again and again; Angus swung his hat back and forth—they shouted farewells that the winds caught up and lost in the sky. Then, one by one, the tiny figures on the roof dissolved, disappeared. All but one, alone, waving something white in answer to their signal . . .

Mary, her eyes blinded by the tears that would no longer be stayed, was waving a cheer to this woman-child of hers, starting out so gallantly, so trustingly . . .

Again, and once again, and still again, came the hail! For a moment as the teams grew restless, they looked away, and when they looked back once more the roof was deserted, and the little brown house stood under the tree, alone with it in the sun.

The Big widened out into the La Crosse Valley. Rockland, a mile to the left of their road, lay at last behind them, the spires of the Bangor churches lifted above the trees ahead. Steadily they tramped on . . . and on . . . and on . . .

And at last, as the sun was near to setting, they came to the first camping ground, a grassy sheltered spot beside the road, where the Neshonoc comes singing out of its valley to join the La Crosse.

Angus outspanned the horses, and staked out the cattle and fed the pigs and chickens while Anne cooked their first meal over a fire made of dry wood that Matthew had gathered and tied up in a bundle for her . . .

"What was the package Mother gave us just before we left?" Angus asked, as they were finishing the meal.

Anne brought it, wrapped securely in heavy brown paper, firmly tied.

"Shall we open it now, or shall we wait?"

"Let's open it!"

"Let's!"

Carefully they untied the strings, and folded back the paper. A deep frame revealed itself, a picture frame made by the Letson's and nestled in the softest of silk were two daguerreotypes that even Anne had never seen, while below them were two ancient weather-eaten fragments of leather, and upon the glass that covered them lay a note.

ANNE looked at the old-fashioned pictures, and then she exclaimed, "Why, this is Mother and Father—Mother when she was a girl!"

Together they read:

"Dear Children—Dear Anne and Angus: We think you will be having your first meal alone together near the mill at Neshonoc that your Grandfather built. And we hope you will open this package there, for it was from there I went with your father to our first home in the pines, and to all the happiness that was ours all the days of our lives together. Perhaps it is silly of us to think that you might care for this, but the pictures were taken in Sparta the day we were married. They are the only ones we have, and now they belong to you, and we know that you will take good care of them. But the old pieces of leather I am afraid you will laugh at. They are not beautiful, but they opened the door of our Honeymoon House, and your father and I walked in (No, we didn't either. He picked me up and carried me in!) and they closed the door and the moonlight fell across the floor . . . I hope it will be given to you to know how happy we were there together—how happy always, in spite of everything hard that came, as it comes to everybody. And somehow we want this to be our gift of happiness from our own wedding day to yours. Good night, dears.

"Tommy and Mary give this with their love to their daughter, Anne, and her husband, Angus, to be theirs, this ninth day of June, 1877.—Mary White."

And then the stars came out, and the cattle, tired of grazing, bedded down for the night. The horses stood, sleeping. Anne and Angus walked up the road past the mill, sat down on the edge of the dam, listened to the water pouring over the spillway into the pool below.

"Angus?"

"What is it, darling?"

"Do you see that star—right there!" And she pointed with her finger. "See the Big Dipper, Angus? Well, it's the star that the handle of the Big Dipper points to and all the other stars circle about."

"Oh," said Angus, "you must mean the North Star? That one?" He pointed, drawing her head down within the circle of his arm.

"Yes, that's it—the one right up—yonder!"

"Well?"

"That's Mother's and Father's love star, Angus. She once told me about it. It's always there, night and day, rain or shine, Mother says . . . as I want our love to be."

They retraced their steps to the wagon. Old Prince met them, his tail wagging, his body wriggling from side to side with happiness that his gods were back again, relieving him of some of the responsibility of looking after the mere animals left in his keeping.

Then they took their bed roll, unstrapped it, and spread it out under the shelter of a great willow.

Old Prince curled down at their feet.

"Our star, Angus!"

"Anne—darling!"

"Angus! Oh, Angus . . . Angus!"

And the evening and the morning were the first day.

Anne stirred, sleepily. Then was wide awake. Angus was gone. Old Prince lifted his head and wagged his tail, and then came to her for her benediction. She put her arms about his neck:

"Old fellow, you'll have to be going home today!" But all Old Prince made of it was that his woman-god wanted him to remain with her. Well, if that was how matters stood, he would stay! Of course there was a fine bed out in the barn at home, and rabbits to chase when one felt like it, and plenty of nice warm milk to be sure—but if his woman-god needed him!

He tried to tell her all this rubbing his cool muzzle against her cheek.

- "The Callao Clue" published in 1936 by the Crime Club.[13] The Callao Clue is a shipboard murder mystery with a detective trying to solve the murder before the ship reaches port. The Galveston Daily News called it a rather ingenious and thrilling melodrama."[14]
- "Death Dupes a Lady" published in 1937 for the Crime Club.[15] One reviewer wrote the following about Death Dupes a Lady:

  > "Mr. Howes rings the bell with a vengeance in this his fourther murder thriller. It is five-star in every respect: the plot is grimly exciting ...; the characters are rounded and full-bodied men and women ... and there are sparkles of humor, just a dash of spice, and the whole thing is excellently written. Indeed, Death Dupes a Lady is the murder thriller pick of those that have come this way this season."[16]

- "Murder at Maneuvers", a tale of sudden death in an army training camp,[17] published in 1938 for the Crime Club.[18]

- "Death Rides a Hobby", published in 1939 for the Crime Club.[19] The Los Angeles Times described "Death Rides a Hobby" as "an amusing mystery of how an amateur photographer finds death in his own lens.[20] Another reviewer said: "This story, gently titled Death Rides a Hobby, shows camera fiends what their friends think of them, with a bit of humor, some ingenuity and even some finesse."[21]

- "Night of the Garter Murder" published in 1939.[11][22]

- "The Nasty Name Murders", story about the murder of the Second Officer on a "hell ship," published in 1939 by the Crime Club.[23] The Oakland Tribune noted that Howes' recurring character, homicide Capt. Ben Lucias, "is always a pleasant mystery companion."[24] Another reviewer offered the following praise for Howes' latest work involving Capt. Ben Lucian:

  > "You can't beat these murder-thrillers about Capt. Ben Lucian for good solid workmanlike killing, catching and confessing. ... (Howes) misses no opportunities, produces clues effectively, and runs them to earth with equal satisfaction for all concerned but the murderer—he, she or they strike three times here."[25]

- "The Case of the Copy Book Killing", published in 1945 for the Crime Club.[26]

Death

Howes died on March 18, 1973, at William Beaumont Hospital in Royal Oak, Michigan.[27] He is buried at Detroit's Elmwood Cemetery.

DEATH VISTS CLINTON HOMES

Mrs. Harry R. Easterly Is Called after Long Battle for Life—Has Been Very Ill for Two Months.

FUNERAL TO BE HELD WEDNESDAY AFTERNOON

Vernon Edward, Four-year-old Son of Mr. and Mrs. John W. Byers, Passed Away at Home on Twelfth Avenue Saturday Evening.

This morning March 2, 1908, at her home, 512 Eleventh avenue, occurred the death of the Mrs. Harry W. Easterly after an illness extending over a long period. For the past two months, Mrs. Easterly has been critically ill ,and since last Wednesday her death has been momentarily expected.

Lilian Bernice Jones was born in Chicago, June 17, 1884. Since she was five years of age she made her home with her grandmother, Mrs. G. N. Connard, in this city, where she received her education, in the public schools. On February 26, 1892, she was united in marriage to Harry W. Easterly, and they have since made their home in this city.

One child, Arlein ,aged five years, is left with the husband to mourn the death of the deceased. A sister, Mrs William Chandler, of Minneapolis, and a brother, Earl Jones of this city, are left.

Mrs. Easterly was a charming woman of splendid character, and was respected and loved by a host of friends, who deeply regret the untimely death. Mrs. Easterly was a member of the Eastern Star.

Funeral services will be held Wednesday afternoon at 3:30 at the residence on Eleventh avenue.

Vernon Edward Byers

Saturday evening February 29,

R. Ray attempted to kill his young wife in a crowded street.

He fired four shots at the woman, who was wounded in the face and left arm, but she is expected to recover. Believing he had killed her, Ray turned the weapon toward his own heart and attempted suicide, but the remaining cartridge failed to explode. The man then ran to a livery stable a short distance away and surrendered to the police.

Later, after being arrested, he again attempted to commit suicide with a pocket knife, but the attempt was frustrated by an officer.

The couple were married eight years ago. Ray formerly was wealthy but lost all through business ventures and recently became a day laborer. Jealousy is believed to have caused the attempt at the double crime.

Request Denied

Obituary.

At her home in Chicago, yesterday morning at 9 o'clock, occurred the death of Mrs. Amanda J. Jones, wife of J. W. Jones, and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. N. Conard, of this city, aged 38 years. The deceased was well known and highly respected in this city, where she spent her childhood days, and her death is deeply lamented by a large circle. She was married 19 years ago in this city to Mr. J. W. Jones, a well known Northwestern engineer, who with their three children is left to mourn the departure of a loving wife and mother.

Her remains will arrive at 2 o'clock to-morrow afternoon accompanied by the bereaved family and members of Division No. 404, B. of L. E., of Chicago, a special car having been tendered them by the Northwestern company. They will be met at the depot by members of Division No. 125, of Clinton, and escorted to the residence of Mr. and Mrs. G. N. Conard, on Fourth street, where the funeral services will be held at 3 o'clock, interment occurring in Springdale cemetery.

Lillian Gay Jones, obituary

OBITUARIES

Augusta Noffke

Funeral services were held for Miss Augusta Noffke, late of the Lutheran Home and Service for the Aged, Arlington Heights, December 13 at the Home. Rev. J. H. Kempf officiated. Interment: St. Lucas cemetery, Chicago. Black's Memorial Home was in charge of arrangements.

Miss Noffke was born July 26, 1865, in Whittstock, Germany. At the age of 28 she came to the United States and became a citizen in 1922. She was a resident of the Lutheran Home and Service for the Aged the past three and a half years. She died quite suddenly at the age of 84.

Survivors include a brother, Frank Noffke of Ottawa, Ontario, Canada, one sister, Miss Johanna H. Noffke of Minnedosa, Manitoba, Canada, and a niece, Mrs. Adeline Gerike of Chicago.

Lillian Gay Jones

Funeral services were held for Mrs. Lillian Gay Jones, late of 830 Pine, Deerfield, December 10 at Oehler's funeral home.

Mrs. Jones was born August 10, 1865, in Clinton, Iowa. She died December 8 in Lake Bluff, Ill.

Survivors include her children, Mrs. Hazel Wing, Mrs. Marie Bender, Mrs. Edith Bentley, Mrs. Cecil Kreitling and Clarence.

Joseph Kobliak

Funeral services will be held today (Thursday) for Joseph Kobliak of Northbrook at Oehler's chapel in Deerfield. Interment Ridgewood cemetery.

Mr. Kobliak died December 11 in the Oak Forest infirmary after a lingering illness.

Carl Raupp

Funeral services were held for Carl Raupp, late of Buffalo Grove rd., Prairie View, December 13 at St. Mary's church, Buffalo Grove. Rev. George F. Ballweber officiated. Interment St. Mary's cemetery. Oehler's funeral home was in charge of arrangements.

Mr. Raupp was born January 25, 1872, in Buffalo Grove. A retired farmer, he had lived in Buffalo Grove all of his life and died December 10 at the age of 77.

Survivors include one brother, Michael, and 20 nieces and nephews.

Anna Pasternak

Funeral services will be held today (Thursday) for Mrs. Anna Pasternak, late of Chicago, (formerly of Wheeling) from Haben's chapel to St. Mary's church, Buffalo Grove, at 10 o'clock. Rev. George Ballweber will officiate. Interment St. Mary's cemetery.

Mrs. Pasternak, the mother of Edward Wesolek, lived on W. Dundee rd., Wheeling, for several years. The last few years she made her home in Chicago and recently suffered a fall, injuring her hip. She died in a Chicago hospital December 11 of pneumonia.

Survivors include one son, Edward Sr.; two grandsons, Edward and Arthur Wesolek, and one great grandchild, Suzanne Wesolek.

Lt. Franklin J. Bublitz

Funeral services will be held for Lt. Franklin J. Bublitz, late of 407 N. Vail ave., Arlington Heights, December 18, at 2:30 p. m., at Black's Memorial Home.

Lt. Bublitz was born November 30, 1916, in Arlington Heights. He was confirmed in 1929 by Rev. H. Fricke at St. Peter Evangelical Lutheran church. He graduated from Arlington Heights high school in 1934.

When the security of the United States seemed to be threatened, he enlisted in the Illinois National Guard February 14, 1941, and was called into active duty with the United States Army. Lt. Bublitz received his basic training with the artillery at Camp Forrest, Tenn., later, in August of 1942, transferring into the Army Air Corps.

He was graduated from Bombardier's school at Midland, Tex., and then given advance training at Alamogordo, N. M., and combat training at Herrington, Kan. In December of 1943 he was sent overseas to Southern Italy.

February 23, 1944, Lt. Bublitz's bomber was shot down over Graunau, Austria. It was in this crash that he and several members of his crew were killed. Official verification of his death was sent by the War Department October 18, 1945. Overseas interment was on Windhag Mountain, Graunau, Austria. He died at the age of 27.

Survivors include his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Bublitz; one brother, Edward, and one sister, Mrs. Lorraine Niemeyer.

Caroline Feddeler

Funeral services will be held for Mrs. Caroline Feddeler, nee Pohlman, late of 56 N. Plum Grove ave., Palatine, December 16, at St. Paul's Evangelical and Reformed church, Palatine, at 2 p. m. Rev. Glen Gumm will officiate. Interment Hillside cemetery. Mrs. Feddeler will lie in state at the Tharp funeral home, Palatine, until the time of the funeral.

Mrs. Feddeler was born August 30, 1880, in Germany. She had been a resident of Palatine the past 45 years. She died December 13 at her home.

Survivors include her husband, Edward H.; one son, Ray; two grandchildren, Bette Jean and Rene Rae; three brothers, William, Louis and August Pohlman, and one sister, Mrs. Anna Hokemeyer.

POPCORN

Popcorn, which has the same food value as corn, was grown and popped by the Incas of Peru long before the discovery of America. Today, says the World Book Encyclopedia, most of the commercial popcorn is grown in the states of Illinois, Iowa, and Nebraska.

Franklin Bublitz body brought home from Austria for burial

The remains of Lt. Franklin J. Bublitz, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Bublitz, arrived in Arlington Heights this week from Windhag Mountain, Austria. They are resting at Black's Memorial Home until Saturday where the funeral will be held Sunday afternoon at 2:30 p. m. Services will be in charge of Rev. Edgar Behrens.

Military honors will be given by Arlington Heights VFW Post No. 981. Interment will be in Memory Gardens cemetery.

Deceased was a member of the air corps. His bomber was shot down over Grunau, Austria Feb. 23, 1944. Official verification of his death was sent by the war department Oct. 18, 1945. (Obituary appears on another page)

Frank's Food Mart a new certified self service super market

Converting a greenhouse conservatory into a large self-service super market is a shining example of something unique in the world of business.

Pesche's Flower and Gift Shop Inc. of Des Plaines, have transferred their 84x36 feet Conservatory into a well stocked market, called Frank's Food Mart featuring Certified Foods, Lee's choice meats and fresh poultry, Suburban Dairy Milk, and Sugar Bowl Ice Cream.

All foods, etc., are reasonably priced with special sales each week.

Customers are greeted with a friendly atmosphere. The whole Pesche "gang", nine, to be exact, plus the regular help, are doing their usual best to make customers feel at home. The lady shopper who has a few extra minutes to spare can browse through the new gift room and flower shop and look to her heart's content. The shops are especially beautiful now as all the Christmas items are on display. There are plenty of ideas to copy for home-made Christmas decorations.

Parking, so important to the shopper, is no problem at Frank's Food Mart as a new blacktop area will accommodate 100 cars at a time. Frank's Food Mart will be open every Sunday from 9 a. m. to 6 p. m., daily hours are from 8 a. m. to 8 p. m. The mart is located at Pesche's Flower and Gift Shop Inc., at 175 North River rd., just north of Rand rd., Des Plaines.

I'll admit, I was skeptical at first....the ingredients seemed a bit odd together. And then I ate it. WOW! This is fantastic, the BEST. I made it exactly as the recipe states, and it has gained the highest rating in my cookbook, "The Standard", which means look no more for a better recipe! It's the closest I've come to the best shrimp I've ever had in my life, which was at a Cozumel beach bar/grill and the owner was NOT coming out with the recipe. This makes me fantasize a little less about HIS shrimp. :) ADDENDUM 2/16/03----------Still LOVE this recipe, and I'm delighted to find that it turned out great after just two minutes in my George Foreman grill. Don't forget to soak the bamboo skewers!

So wonderful was their effect, that in three days I felt like a new man, and today I am cured of all my troubles." Guaranteed at Joseph Emmert's drug store; price, 50c.

YOUNG COUPLE HAPPILY WEDDED

PUTNAM-BRUBAKER NUPTIALS SOLEMNIZED THIS AFTERNOON.

Bride and Groom Are Members of Highly Esteemed Families—Go to Chicago on Honeymoon Trip—Other Social Happenings.

One of the prettiest weddings of the season occurred this afternoon when Miss May Agnes Putnam and Harry L. Brubaker were united in marriage. The ceremony was performed at 2:30 o'clock at the home of the bride's parents in Delaware street, Rev. F. J. Bate officiating. The beautiful and impressive ring service was used, Helen Sage, the little niece of the bride acting as ring bearer. The bride wore a gown of white french lawn, trimmed with Valenciennes lace and carried a shower bouquet of white chrysanthemums. The young couple were unattended. Only the immediate friends and relatives of the young people were present, and after the ceremony an elegant wedding dinner was served. The banquet took place in the large dining room of the residence, which was artistically decorated with smilax and ferns, the color scheme being green and white. After the dinner the young people took the 6 o'clock passenger train to Chicago where they will remain for several weeks.

Mrs. Brubaker is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter M. Putnam, who reside in Delaware street. She was born in Washington, Penn., and came to this city with her parents in 1876. She has been a resident here since that time and attended the public schools and also the High school from which she graduated with the class of 1894. She was graduated with honors, delivering the salutatory for her class. After graduating from the High school, she remained at home several years and became versed in the arts of housekeeping. For the last three years she has been head stenographer for the Woodmanse Manufacturing company in this city. She is a very attractive young woman and has made hosts of friends, who unite in wishing the young couple happiness and joy in life's journey.

Mr. Brubaker is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Brubaker residing in Taylor avenue. He is also a native of Freeport. He attended the public schools and several years ago went to Woodstock, Ill., where he was employed in a highly responsible position by the Oliver Typewriter Co. During the last year he has been employed as a machinist at the Hoefer Manufacturing company's plant. He is one of the most popular young men in the city. His friends are legion and his sterling qualities have been recognized by all.

The following young women served at the banquet: Misses Florence Whitlock, Katharine Stevens, Cora Held, Mrs. J. F. Jourden, and Mrs. George Held.

A large number of out-of-town guests were present, among them being Mr. and Mrs. William Howe, Chicago; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Currie, Elgin; Mr. and Mrs. C. Curtis, and Edward Fields, Edward Watson, and James Sullivan, of Woodstock; Roy Aldrich, of Richmond, and Clarke Anderson, of Peoria.

Mr. and Mrs. Brubaker will make their home with the groom's parents in Taylor avenue, and will be at home after the first of January.

First Annual Dance.

The piano and organ makers of Freeport will have their first annual dance and card party at E. A. Blust's hall Thursday evening, Nov. 23. This event is looked forward to as being one of the most successful of the season, and an excellent and nice attendance will be present. Prizes will be given to the successful ones in the card contest, and the dance will be without question enjoyed by all. Sweeney's complete orchestra will furnish the music. It is the intention of the piano and organ makers to make this an annual affair, and no time or expense has been spared to make this (their first one) an affair that will be long remembered. The public is cordially invited. Admission, 25 cents. Tickets will be sold at the door.

Supper and Sale a Success.

The annual supper and sale given by the Ladies' Aid society of the First M. E. church last evening was a great success. Supper was served in the parlors of the church from 5 to 8 o'clock, the tables being filled during every moment of that period. Around the sides of the hall booths, containing candies, aprons and all kinds of homemade articles, had been erected and all did a rushing business. The supper was given for the purpose of raising money to pay the bonds which the Aid society subscribed in payment of the church debt, and the ladies cleared about $75 during the evening. The Cecilian club furnished music during the supper hours.

FOR EMPLOYES OF STATE.

First Civil Service Examination Will Be Held in December.

At a meeting of the state civil service commission held yesterday in Chicago it was decided to reclassify the service and to hold the first state examination in the middle of December. The exact date and the place are yet to be determined. The latter will be determined by the applications, it being the endeavor of the commission to locate the place of examination most conveniently for the greatest number of applicants.

The first examination will be for physicians and "visitors," four of the latter to be chosen. The first classification of the service was into seven branches. It was decided to increase the classes to ten.

Rules for the government of the state charitable institutions also were adopted. In many respects they follow the rules of the Chicago civil service with such exceptions as are made necessary by the difference between the state and city laws.

An especial effort has been made to prevent the employment of "institution tramps." These men drift from one institution to another. If discharged from one they appear at another with the statement that they had experience in other state institutions, and where investigations have not been made an undesirable class of men has secured employment. The rules provide for the keeping of efficiency records in order that the capability of the employes may be investigated.

The ten classifications of the service as decided upon by the commission follow:

Class A, medical service—Physicians, surgeons, pharmacists, and druggists.

Class B, clerical service—Business managers, purchasing agents, assistant superintendents, secretaries, clerks, accountants, home visitors, librarians, stenographers, telephone operators, and orderlies.

Class C, custodians—Stewards, superintendents of buildings and grounds, housekeepers, treasurers, storekeepers, attendants for boys and girls, janitors, porters, elevator men, and watchmen.

Class D, nursing service—Superintendents of nurses, supervisors, nurses, and attendants.

Class E, teaching—Principals of schools and teachers.

Class F, engineers—Engineers, assistants, firemen, dynamo tenders, and electricians.

Class G, mechanical service—Mechanics and instructors in trades and manual training.

Class H, agricultural—Farmers, florists, gardeners, and dairymen.

Class I, miscellaneous positions—Chaplains, musicians, coachmen, and drivers.

Class J, unskilled labor—Positions not requiring special examinations.

Sick and Afflicted.

Giles Hea is ill with lagrippe.

Mrs. L. G. Voigt, wife of Dr. Voigt, is critically ill at her home in Adams street.

Where are you sick? Headache, foul-tongue, no appetite, lack energy, pain your stomach, constipation? Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea will make you well and keep you well. 35 cents. Joseph Emmert.

A. M. CHAMBERLIN DIES IN CHICAGO

FORMER RESIDENT SUCCUMBS TO CANCER OF THE STOMACH.

For Many Years He Was Associated With His Father in Business in This City — Other Deaths of the Day.

Albert M. Chamberlin, for many years a well-known resident of Freeport, died in Chicago last evening. He had been critically ill a long time of cancer of the stomach, and for several months his life has been despaired of. Mr. Chamberlin was 48 years old and was a son of M. D. Chamberlin, deceased, who for many years conducted a hat and furnishing goods store in the Fry block, at Stephenson and Chicago streets. He attended the public schools and was afterwards in business with his father. Later he went to Rockford and conducted a similar business, and at this place he was married to Miss Lou Secomb. Disposing of the Rockford store, he moved to Chicago, where he had charge of the hat department in a large store.

The deceased had a large circle of acquaintances in Freeport who will sincerely mourn his departure. Mr. Chamberlin had the happy faculty of winning friends easily and they remained loyal to him, which was in turn reciprocated by him. He was thoughtful and generous in his treatment of others and in his home life he was the kindly father and husband. His wife and one child, Erma, aged 14 years, survive him. He also leaves a sister and two brothers, Mrs. Helen Spencer, of Chicago; Charles, of Austin, and Milo, of Freeport.

Private funeral services will be held at the Chicago residence, 1338 Byron street, and the remains will be brought to Freeport for interment.

Deemer.

Mrs. Mary Deemer, a pioneer resident of Stephenson county, died at 5 o'clock this morning at Orangeville after an illness extending over three years of cancer. Mrs. Deemer has been making her home with her son, Frank, on a farm in the vicinity of Orangeville since the death of her husband, which occurred fifteen years ago.

The deceased was born in Center county, Pa., fifty-nine years ago, and came to Orangeville with her parents when three months old. She was united in marriage to Samuel Deemer and their union was blessed by two children. Mrs. Deemer was a devout Christian and was affiliated with the United Brethren church, of Orangeville. Mrs. Deemer is survived by two sons, Frank, of Orangeville, and Thomas, of Freeport.

It is believed that the funeral will be held Saturday morning at 10 o'clock from the country residence of her son.

Janzi.

Emil Janzi died yesterday afternoon at the home of his mother, Mrs. Lena Janzi, in Spring street. The young man was 26 years of age the 6th day of last August, and was born in this city. About a year ago symptoms of consumption developed and from that time on his condition has grown rapidly worse.

The deceased was an industrious young man and drove a delivery wagon for Christ Katzemeier for a number of years. He was educated in the public schools of the city. He is survived by his mother and a sister, Mrs. Ira Schofield, residing in West Freeport.

The funeral will be held Saturday afternoon at one o'clock from the home of his mother. Rev. Ernst Traeger, pastor of the German Reformed church, will officiate. The remains will be interred in the city cemetery.

Jones.

James Jones, one of the best-known and popular engineers in the employ of the Chicago & Northwestern railroad, expired last night at his home in Chicago, death being due to cancer. Mr. Jones was well known in Freeport and was for many years on the passenger run between this city and Chicago. He was afterwards transferred to the run between Chicago and Clinton, Ia. His wife survives him.

HIS LAST LECTURE

"The Land of Possibilities" Discussed By Father Vaughan at St. Mary's Hall Last Night.

Father Vaughan gave his last lecture of the series to the usual large audience last night at St. Mary's hall. His subject was "The Land of Possibilities," and the foundation of his lecture was the similarity in the motives of Moses of old leading an oppressed people to the "Land of Promise" and Christopher Columbus' motives in leading the way for oppressed peoples to the "Land of Possibilities." Both were ordained of God. The speaker carried his audience back to colonial days, to the memorable hall in Philadelphia where around stood men of every blood and creed and gave to the world the grandest document ever written, "The Declaration of Independence." God was the foundation of this government, made so by our forefathers, and how far we have departed from the motive of our forefathers may be seen by the millions of our people who are today living in infidelity or in the arms of doubt. This country is known all over the world as a free land. It was made so by our forefathers. Brother fought against brother and father against son that the freedom given us by our forefathers might be preserved, but today is the negro knocking at our doors, asking "are we really free?" The greed for gold has taken hold on the American people and the masses are no longer free, but their freedom need not be regained by large armies and long range guns, but through an intelligent use of the ballot box. The gentleman held the close attention of his audience for over two hours, and at one time he would have them in laughter and another time in tears. He took them through every phase of the country's history, which he termed an old story, but the interesting manner in which the old story was related, clothed in such beautiful language and the speaker's peculiar style of delivery, put new interest into our country's history. In order to get a true conception of Father Vaughan's great oratorical ability he must be heard.

It is to be regretted that "The Land of Possibilities" has finished his course of lectures here, but it is hoped that he will soon again appear before a Freeport audience.

THE RETAIL CLERKS' UNION.

Some of the Benefits That Accrue to the Members.

[Communicated.]

On December 8, 1890, the Retail Clerks' National Protective association was organized. A mere handful of men, devoting their best efforts and energy toward bettering the conditions of the clerks employed in retail stores, have built up an organization, which, at the present time, is one of the largest fraternal and protective associations in existence.

The first aim of the association was to reduce the working hours of retail clerks, which had always been not less than twelve hours each day, and in many cases as many as fourteen. They were also compelled to work Sunday mornings. The reform due to the efforts of the association, in securing an early closing hour throughout the country, was met with the approval of almost every merchant in the land.

The fraternal feature of the association necessitated the introduction of some substantial benefit, other than early closing and Sunday rest. The local organizations had encouraged social feeling, and placed the retail clerks of the various cities on more friendly terms with each other. The national association, which later, in affiliating the clerks of Canada, became international, paid a funeral benefit of $50 to the members in good standing at death. The prosperity of the association, which had grown phenomenally, made possible the increase of the funeral benefit to all members in good standing for one year, to $100. Up to January 1, 1905, over $40,000 had been paid out of this fund. The convention held July 11, 1905, at Galveston, saw fit to enlarge greatly on the benefit features, which are now as follows:

To members in good standing, funeral benefit, six months, $25; twelve months, $50; two years, $100; three years, $150; five years, $200. To sick members in good standing twelve months, sick benefits, $5 per week for twelve weeks each year.

Every retail clerk, window trimmer, mail order house clerk, or clerk in any retail trade, except the liquor trade, is eligible to membership in the Retail Clerks' International Protective association. To every member is mailed each month, free of charge, a copy of the Retail Clerks' International Advocate, an entertaining, instructive magazine, which contains articles of interest to the retail clerk, and suggestions which generally prove of value in making a clerk indispensable to his employer.

The Whole Story.

A little fun,
A little play,
A little laughter
Day by day.
A little school
And we'll confess
A little bit
Of waywardness.
A little grief,
A little woe,
As down the later
Years we go.
A little love,
A little strife,
A deal of hope—
And this is life.

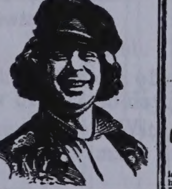
AMUSEMENTS.

"The Hoosier Girl."

Conventionality in play-building thrown to the winds, away from the beaten path; no wronged heroine, no mortgaged farm, no snow storm, no threshing machine, no husking bee, but an absolutely new, original and up-to-date theme; sturdy characters that are a delight to behold, their portrayals so utterly untheatric and artistic, so true in every tone and gesture that the total effect is a continuous performance of jollity and joy.



"The Hoosier Girl" will be at the Grand opera house tomorrow night.

"The Paraders."

The engagement of this company at the Grand opera house gives promise of being the most important musical comedy event of the season. The play, which is in two acts, is so constructed as to give scope for the introduction of specialties, and from the reviews seen of the production these features are said to be of a very superior order.

"The Paraders" will be at the Grand opera house on Monday night.

These were very nice. I was expecting outstanding flavour for five stars though and this just didn't make it. Next time I would add sweet chilli sauce, more tomato and garlic. Fresh basil is a must! UPDATE: I have now modified this recipe to suit our family's taste and I have to say that it is worthy of 5* now. Instead of tomato sauce, I used a whole can of diced tomatoes, doubled the garlic, more basil, 1/4 cup sweet chilli sauce, 1 tblsn of red wine vinegar, 1/4 cup oil and pulsed the lot in my food processor. Verrryyy nice.

For a small Oscar Party I made an arrangement of skewer recipes. My friend Kristi ABSOLUTELY loved this one. But a word to the wise, if you for some reason not to grill the shrimp and instead make it on the stove, BIG mistake. I became lazy and mad waiting for my boyfriend and decided to use the stove and a skillet. It had to be scrapped, the grill allows some of the seasonings to air out especially the garlic and adds a great taste that can not be replicated on the stove.

This is a super simple and yummy recipe. The only thing I did differntly is used ketchup instead of tomato sauce, as I didn't want to open a large can of tamato sauce for such a little amount.

I marinated 1 lb. of shrimp (the frozen, peeled and deveined kind) in a full batch of the marinade (enough for 2 people). I used dried basil, white wine vinegar, and extra garlic. I then made a seperate double batch of the marinade with a huge piece of elephant garlic which I then emulsified in the blender and then heated on the stove. I cooked the shrimp in a skillet over medium-high heat until pink and served it over angel-hair pasta with the extra sauce and some parmesan cheese. My husband raved over it and even has me passing out the recipe to his co-workers!!! Definitely a keeper!

OMG, this is hands-down the best shrimp i have ever tasted in my whole entire life. this marinade is soooooo good..i think it's the combination of all the ingredients that makes this so tasty. i brushed the left-over marinade over the shrimp while it was on the grill. this recipe is highly recommended!!!!! TIP: even if you don't have time to let the shrimp marinate for one hour, just throw everything together and brush the rest of the marinade on the shrimp while its grilling...it still tastes amazing!!

Obituary.

At her home in Chicago, yesterday morning at 9 o'clock, occurred the death of Mrs. Amanda J. Jones, wife of J. W. Jones, and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. N. Conard, of this city, aged 38 years. The deceased was well known and highly respected in this city, where she spent her childhood days, and her death is deeply lamented by a large circle. She was married 19 years ago in this city to Mr. J. W. Jones, a well known Northwestern engineer, who with their three children is left to mourn the departure of a loving wife and mother.

Her remains will arrive at 2 o'clock to-morrow afternoon accompanied by the bereaved family and members of Division No. 404, B. of L. E., of Chicago, a special car having been tendered them by the Northwestern company. They will be met at the depot by members of Division No. 125, of Clinton, and escorted to the residence of Mr. and Mrs. G. N. Conard, on Fourth street, where the funeral services will be held at 3 o'clock, interment occurring in Springdale cemetery.

JONES

James Jones, one of the best known and popular engineers in the employ of the Chicago and Northwestern railroad, expired last night at his home in Chicago, death being due to cancer. Mr. Jones was well known in Freeport and was for many years on the passenger run between this city and Chicago. He was afterwards transferred to the run between Chicago and Clinton. His wife survives him.

WAVERLY TOWNSHIP

Waverly Township (126-57) lies on an elevation, with exception of the northwest corner, which terminates in the hills. It has a large amount of farm land and grazing land and good water supply with many dug outs and dams.

Waverly #2 school, 1909. L. to r., Flossie (Corey) Freiss (teacher), Agnes Crowell, Cleo Kann, Bena (Abbas) Hagen, John Abbas, George Kann, Eddie Peters, Herb Peters, Sylvester Kann. In front: Lucile Root, Henry Abbas and Dean Root.

There are two gulches or Coulees, about two miles apart, in the eastern part of the township both running West. It is believed that there were once many trees along these gulches from the size of the stumps. They were no doubt cut and hauled to the fort for use there.

Samual Denton, Josiah True, and Jack Lemon were the first men to settle in what was later Waverly Township. These three men came here from Avoca, Iowa, in July, 1882. Denton homesteaded in section (8) now owned by Donald Naddy. Mr. True homesteaded in section (8) now owned by Clifford and Doris Freiss and Lemon homesteaded in section (7) now owned by Gerald and Darlene Dinger. Their nearest neighbor, Frank Ford, was ten miles. Cross country they were sixteen miles from Fort Sisseton. These three men built sod houses. Josiah True built a 19x24 sod house digging all the sod with a spade, and it was three feet thick, much hard work was put into building these houses. They went back to Iowa in September and came back with their families in October to stay.

Samual Denton was a railroad surveyor before coming to Dakota territory. He was elected surveyor of Day County in 1884, and in 1885 he was elected surveyor of Marshall County. Samual was caught in the January blizzard in 1884 walking from the Fort, but survived.

In August 1882 Jay King, Frank and Lee True, Will Adams and Tom Lemon came from Avoca, Iowa. They walked from Webster to Fort Sisseton, a distance of twenty-four miles where Captain Vander Harch took them, with a government wagon to Josiah True home. Will Adams settled in section (5) now owned by Clayton and Faye Opp. Lee True settled in Section (30) now owned by Merle and Joyce Kann. Jay King settled in section (23) now owned by Mirl and Eunice Foster. King and True filed claims then went back to Iowa to prepare for moving here to live.

In March Samuel King, father of Jay and Horace, chartered eighteen immigrant cars and a coach to carry their colony to Andover. They were about thirty-six adults and twelve to fifteen children. They were six days coming. The majority of these people settled in Waverly and Lowell Townships. Samuel King built the first frame house in the township and a barn.

Daniel Grenhalph and John Brunskill came from Iowa in the spring of 1883 and settled in the sections (19) and (20) now owned by Jim Peters and Gerald and Louise Atkinson. In 1884 they filed claim in sections (29) and (30) now owned by Delmar and Marilyn Roehr and Roy and Frances Person. They fenced about five hundred acres for pasture and brought about one hundred horses, mostly brood mares, an imported Clydsdale Stallion, first in this part of the country, and high grade Norman. They built a large bank barn. Both Grenhalph and Brunskill were born in England.

H.E. Henry settled in section (30) and started a nursery to supply the settlers with tree and shrubs.

Settlers came to Waverly Township from Iowa, Minnesota, Canada, England, Michigan, Kansas, New York, Illinois and Wisconsin.

Waverly came into market in February 1883 and in April 1885 met at the F.M. True home with Judges George Chase, Samual Denton and Daniel Grenhalph to organize the township.

Four schools houses were built in Waverly between 1884-1890. All the schools are closed. Waverly No. 2 and 4 were the last to close Since 1966 the children have been bused to Britton.

Waverly No. 1 school was purchased by the town ship for their meetings and also as a voting precinct for Waverly and Lowell.

CARL E. ANDERSON
SUSAN (MATE) REED ANDERSON

Carl E. Anderson was born in Gothenburg, Sweden in 1888. He came to the United States in 1907 and settled in the Langford locality He later returned to Sweden for several months visit, coming back to the US again and was employed in St. Paul, Minnesota. In 1916, he made his home in Marshall County. In 1917, he married Susan M Reed (1878-1940). They farmed east of Langford on the Day County line for a short time, then moved to Waverly township, where they farmed for a number of years. At the time of his death in 1940, he was farming in Pleasant Valley Township. They had three children: Roy, Jean, and Arden.

Carl E. Anderson, Susan (Mate) Reed Anderson

Roy Edward, born in 1918, was farming with his father at the time of his father's death. He and his brother, Arden, continued to operate the farm. In 1945, he married Alma Haverly, a teacher in the rural schools at that time. They had three children: Monte Lynn (1946-), and twins, Penny Annette and Paul Edward, born in 1949.

Jean Dorothy was born in 1920. After her parents' death in 1940, she kept house for her brothers for several years. In 1946, she married Henry Boone, who had just returned home from 3½ years of Army duty during World War II. They farmed on the Anderson homeplace until 1974, when they moved into Britton. Jean began work in the Britton School Lunchroom in 1962 and continues her employment there.

Arden Charles was born in 1922 and farmed in the Britton area most of his life. He was married to Nancy Johnson in 1947. They had one daughter, Susan Margaret, born in 1950. Susan is married to Rev. David Thomas and lives in Lancaster, Pennsylvania. They have two daughters, Kathryn (1972) and Sarah (1975). Arden passed away in October, 1977.

Deceased members of the Carl Anderson family are buried in the Britton Cemetery.

ATKINSON FAMILY

The first paragraph of this history has not yet been substantiated by fact, but has been passed down through the generations.

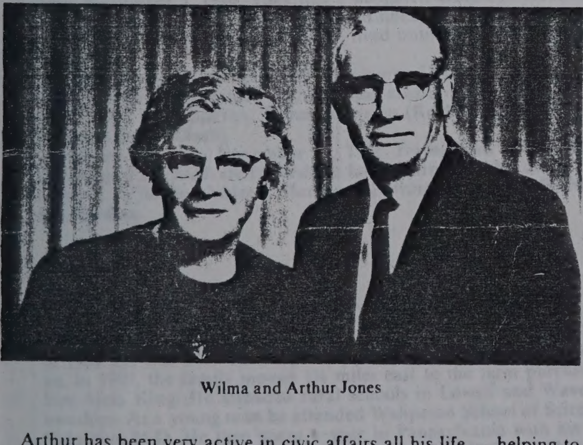
Two Atkinson brothers sailed from Northern Ireland to America at the same time around 1740. One landed in South Carolina and Lewis Hires Atkinson landed in Virginia. The wind blew their boats to dif-

Adolph Johnson sitting on back binder. Ernest and Urban on tractor — 1928. (Vernie Johnson Story)

After their marriage Mr. and Mrs. Vernie Johnson lived and farmed in Marshall county for forty-three years. In 1976 they moved to Britton where they now live.

ARTHUR JONES FAMILY

Arthur Jones, eldest son of Mary and John S. Jones, was born in Lowell township April 24, 1904 and Wilma Wallace, eldest daughter of Nelson and Lois Wallace, was born in Lowell township March 25, 1903. They were married October 18, 1930 at the bride's home by Rev. J. Henry Irwin. They resided in Lowell township on the family farm on section 16 for 7 years. Their oldest son, Maurice Arthur, was born in the Britton Hospital October 31, 1931. Hugh Curtis on March 3, 1934 and Owen Irwin on September 22, 1937, were both born at the farm home. In December of 1937 the family moved to their present location in Waverly Township, section 17. There the youngest son, Leon Wallace, was born July 8, 1941.



Wilma and Arthur Jones

Arthur has been very active in civic affairs all his life — helping to organize and held offices in the original Hog-Corn program in 1930 and Agricultural Adjustment program. Also in organizing and promoting the Rural Electric cooperatives and power generation cooperatives. He served as State Senator from 1951 to 1970 from Marshall and Day counties except for the term of 1953-1955.

The family has been active in the First Presbyterian church of Britton through the years. They farm now as a family corporation known as Penrhos farms. Two sons, Maurice and Curtis live in Lowell township and Leon, Owen and Arthur reside in Waverly.

LEON JONES FAMILY

Leon Wallace, youngest son of Arthur and Wilma Jones, was born on the family farm in Waverly twp. on July 8, 1941. He attended Waverly No. 2 and Britton High School.

Carol Olivia Ogren was born in the Britton Hospital on October 24, 1943. She attended Sisseton No. 3, Langford High and Northern State College. She taught elementary education in the Claremont and Britton Schools.

On November 21, 1964 Leon and Carol were married at Highlands Lutheran Church. To this union three children were born. Tracy Linn, born June 19, 1968; Thomas Leon, born August 27, 1971 and Pamela Faye, born January 25, 1974.

They have lived on the family farm in Section 17 all of their married life. Leon farms with his father and three brothers in a farming corporation known as Penrhos Farms. On August 1 of '78 we moved into a new home built by our Penrhos Family.

GEORGE KANN

George Kann was born to Mahlon and Mary Kann October 9, 1897. He was born on the old homestead six miles south of Britton. In 1907 the family moved 1½ miles east to the farm purchased from Alma King. He attended school in Lowell and Waverly townships. He lived on the family farm until his marriage. He met Frances Kilman, daughter of Mrs. Fred Rekow, Ellendale, No. Dak. while she was teaching in Waverly township. They were married Oct. 19, 1929 and made their home on farms west of Lake City, So. Dak. until they purchased a farm in Nordland township. They had six children, Helen, Kenneth, Mary Ann, Robert, Larry and Doris.

George and Frances Kann and family

George died in the Britton hospital Oct. 20, 1951. By Mrs. George Kann

MAHLON D. KANN

Mahlon D. Kann was born in Mifflin County, Pennsylvania, on February 28, 1854. He lived there until 1876, when he moved to Wooster, Ohio, with a sister and her family. While there, he worked as a carpenter. In 1881, he moved to Avoca, Iowa, where he met and married Mary King, on October 1, 1882. Mary was the daughter of Samuel A. King, and was born at Avoca, May 3, 1859. In the spring of 1883, they left Iowa with a group of five covered wagons, including her father and other members of the King family. They were led by her brother, Jay, who had been to Dakota the previous year. This group from Iowa settled in the area six miles south of Britton (Mahlon homesteaded just north of what is now the Duane Thayer farm). Mahlon farmed and worked as a carpenter, erecting many of the pioneer buildings in the area. In 1894, they returned to Avoca, Iowa, and stayed there for one year. They then returned to their original farm in Dakota. In 1907, they bought the farm, 1½ miles to the east, from Alma King. Mahlon erected a new house for his family. This house is today occupied by Sylvester's son, Merle and his family. Mahlon lived on this farm until his death, April 14, 1930. Mary followed him in death May, 1933. Mahlon was a member of the Christian church and a member of the Britton chapter of Masons.

LEON JONES FAMILY

Leon Wallace, youngest son of Arthur and Wilma Jones, was born on the family farm in Waverly twp. on July 8, 1941. He attended Waverly No. 2 and Britton High School.

Carol Fitz Gibbons was born in the Britton Hospital on October 9, 1945. She attended Sisseton No. 3, Langford High and Northern State College. She taught elementary education in the Claremont and [illegible] Schools.

On November 24, 1966 Leon and Carol were married at Highland Lutheran Church. To this union three children were born. Tami Lea, born June 17, 1968; Thomas Leon, born August 27, 1971 and Leah Faye, born January 25, 1974.

They have lived on the family farm in Section 12 all of their married life. Leon farms with his father and three brothers in a family corporation known as [illegible] Farms. On August 1 of '78 we moved into a new home built by our [illegible] Family.

GEORGE KANN

George Kann was born to Mahlon and Mary Kann October 4, 1897. He was born on the old homestead six miles south of Britton. In 1907 the family moved 1½ miles east to the farm purchased from Alma King. He attended school in Lowell and Waverly townships. He worked on the family farm until his marriage. He met Frances Rekow, daughter of Mrs. Fred Rekow, Hillsdale, No. Dak., while she was teaching in Waverly township. They were married Oct. 19, 1929 and made their home on farms west of Lake City, So. Dak. until they purchased a farm in Newport township. They had six children, Helen, Kenneth, Mary Ann, Robert, Larry and Doris.

Mahlon D. Kann was born in Mifflin County, Pennsylvania, on February 28, 1854. He lived there until 1876, when he moved to Wooster, Ohio, with a sister and her family. While there, he worked as a carpenter. In 1881, he moved to Avoca, Iowa, where he met and married Mary King, on October 1, 1882. Mary was the daughter of Samuel A. King and was born at Avoca, May 3, 1859. In the spring of 1883, they left Iowa with a group of five covered wagons, including her father and other members of the King family. They were led by her brother, Jay, who had been to Dakota the previous year. The group from Iowa settled in the area six miles south of Britton. Mahlon homesteaded just north of what is now the Duane Thayer farm. Mahlon farmed and worked as a carpenter, erecting many of the pioneer buildings in the area. In 1894, they returned to Avoca, Iowa, and stayed there for one year. They then returned to their original farm in Dakota. In 1907, they bought the farm, 1½ miles to the east, from Alma King. Mahlon erected a new house for his family. This house is today occupied by Sylvester's son, Merle and his family. Mahlon lived on this farm until his death, April 14, 1930. Mary followed him in death May, 1937. Mahlon was a member of the Christian church and a member of the Britton chapter of Masons.
